1. Sal's story and Phoebe's story are woven together. Using the Venn diagram below, write descriptive words and phrases that show how the two stories are alike and how they are different.

2. Sal wants nothing to do with Margaret Cadaver for the majority of the story, then their relationship changes. "I went to see Margaret Cadaver, and we had a long talk, and that's when I found out how she met my father. It was painful to talk with her, and I even cried in front of her, but afterward understood why my father liked to be with her."(page 255) Who is Margaret Cadaver, and why is she so important to Sal and her father?
