

CREATOR MEDIA KIT

Content Creator | Product Integration | Brand Collaborations

About Me

I am content creator specializing in immersive, high-quality video experiences where sexual wellness products become a natural part of the scene.

My content focuses on authentic interaction with products, allowing viewers to see how toys and accessories actually look, feel, and perform in realistic situations.

Instead of simple promotional mentions, products are integrated directly into the story, atmosphere, and visual experience, which creates stronger audience engagement and trust.

This approach allows brands to reach viewers in a more organic and persuasive way.

Content Production

I specialize in long-form adult video content, designed to highlight products within natural and intimate scenarios.

Production standards:

- Full-length scenes (10+ minutes)
- 4K video quality
- Professional lighting setup
- High-quality audio
- Carefully selected private locations
- Natural product integration within the scene

This format allows viewers to experience the product in context, which significantly increases:

- viewer engagement
 - watch time
 - purchase interest

Platform Distribution

Content produced during collaborations is distributed across a network of established adult platforms, maximizing both reach and longevity.

Full-length videos are published on:

Pornhub
PimpBunny
ManyVids
Clip4Sale
OnlyFans
Fansly

Additional promotion appears on:

OnlyFans
Fansly
Reddit
FetLife
BlueSky
ShareSome

Instead of publishing everything simultaneously, content is strategically released over time, ensuring that the product continues to appear in front of viewers for an extended period.

Collaboration Format

Brand partnerships typically include:

- Product supplied by the brand
- Payment for video production
- Dedicated video featuring the product
- Multi-platform distribution
- Affiliate links or promotional codes

For the strongest results, collaborations can also be structured as a series of videos, allowing the product to appear in different scenarios and maintain visibility over time.

Industry Experience

Before becoming a full-time creator, I owned and operated my own sex shop.

This experience provided deep knowledge of:

- adult products
- customer preferences
- product positioning
- real purchasing behavior

Because of this background, I present products in a way that feels natural, informative, and appealing to potential buyers.

Why Brands Work With Me

My content style focuses on authenticity and immersion, which helps viewers connect with the experience rather than feeling like they are watching an advertisement.

This leads to:

- stronger trust from the audience
 - higher engagement with the content
 - increased interest in the featured products

Let's Work Together

If your brand is looking for authentic, high-quality product integration within adult content, I would love to collaborate.

Feel free to reach out with details about:

- your brand
- the product you'd like to feature
- potential collaboration ideas

Together we can create content that showcases your product in a natural, engaging, and memorable way.
