

Food Resources for Thompson School District Families

KidsPak weekend food program: Complete the KidsPak sign up or talk to your child's teacher (if you have older kids you can get it for them as well - contact the front office at their school.) Bags are also available at the Loveland and Berthoud Libraries in the children's area - take what you need.

Vindeket Food Rescue: North Fort Collins (400 Dozier Dr, Ft. Collins)

Hours: Sunday 12-3 pm, Tuesday 2-7 pm, Thursday 9am-1pm

You may want to take a wagon or cart and bags with you to shop, and pay what you can or not at all. Prepare to stand in a line for a short time. Not a lot of variety and short shelf life. Lots of bread.

Food Bank for Larimer County: 2600 N Lincoln Ave, Loveland

Loveland Hours: Tues, Thur, Fri, and Sat 10 am - 3 pm

Fresh and non-perishable items are available

- The bus line runs directly to the Loveland Food Bank location. See description below about SNAP Outreach - Not required to have legal residency to benefit.
- SNAP and WIC (SNAP Outreach team can meet with families in person during "shopping hours", and also the SNAP Assistance Line can provide outreach by phone). Can help families apply for other public benefits, as well, such as TANF and Medicaid. Child must have legal residency to be eligible for SNAP; WIC does not have the same requirements.
