

Assistive Technology Websites

Assistive Technology Websites

AAC Community: AAC Community is an effort to unite all individuals concerned with communication rights with intellectual disability, autism, movement difficulties and other disabilities that create complex communication needs.

AAC Intervention: Dr. Caroline Musselwhite is an assistive technology specialist with more than 30 years of experience working with children and adolescents with severe disabilities, in a variety of settings, including Head Start, developmental day programs, and the public schools.

AAC Institute A not-for-profit, charitable organization dedicated to the most effective communication for people who rely on augmentative and alternative communication (AAC).

- 1) The Center for AAC and Autism- is dedicated to building awareness of the power of AAC to change the lives of children with autism and other developmental disabilities, who are challenged by limited spontaneous communication skills.
<https://www.aacandautism.com/>
- 2) Gail Van Tatenhove's Website
<https://www.vantatenhove.com/resources>
- 3) <http://www.lburkhart.com/gphb.htm> Linda J. Burkhart's Assistive Technology and Augmentative Communication Linda Burkhart has developed numerous adapted equipment and innovative strategies for using these devices with children.
- 4) <https://praacticalaac.org/> PrAACTical AAC- supports a community of professionals and families who are determined to improve the communication and literacy abilities of people with significant communication difficulties.