Researching U.S. Senators

1. View the following two video clips in this link to learn about this branch of the U.S. Government : Congressional Powers and the Constitution

Respond to the questions below:

Explain the founders' intent on establishing a Congress as Rep. King discusses.

Where in the Constitution does it provide for a Congress?

Explain Rep. Barr's statements on the powers of the legislative branch.

2. View this video clip to learn about this chamber then respond to the accompanying questions: The Role of the Senate

What is meant by the Senate being described as a "cooling saucer?"

Why was the Senate intentionally created to be slow?

What unique powers does the Senate have?

Describe the differences between the requirements for the House and the Senate. Why did the founders include these differences in the Constitution?

3. To learn about your state's senators, click here: C-SPAN's Congressional Chronicle

From the drop-down arrow on the website, select your state to view your state's senators.

Provide the political party for each senator:

Consider the political party representation, how could that impact policy decisions that are made in your state?

4. From the listed senators in your state, choose the person you would like to research and click on their name. Then, click the "Official Bio" link under the photo and complete the charts below with the given information.
