Thank you again for inviting me to come in and speak to your group about Road Scholar. I truly am passionate about what they do, and I hope that came across to those who attended the presentation.

In order for Road Scholar to share information with those who attended the event, attendees will need to share their contact information through a unique link. It is important that attendees use this unique link so that they will be entered to win our $500 raffle.

Could you share the email text I have provided to you below with all those who attended the presentation so they have the link handy for signing up?

Let me know if you have any questions! Again, thank you for this opportunity, and do let me know if ever there is a time in the future when you'd like me to give another presentation.

Take care,
