

UMOJI Winter Relief Fund

Are you an Oregonian in need of urgent assistance?

UMOJI is offering a $100 grant to help individuals who have recently been released from prison and are experiencing homelessness or extreme financial hardship.

To qualify, you must:

- Be a resident of Oregon
- Be recently released from prison
- Be experiencing homelessness or extreme financial hardship
- Need essential items such as a tent, blanket, warm clothing, or a hot meal

To apply, please submit the following:

1. A brief written statement or video explaining your specific needs and how this grant will help you.
2. Proof of your recent release from prison (e.g., a copy of your release papers or a letter from a correctional facility).
3. Proof of your current address or homelessness status (e.g., a utility bill, a shelter intake form, or a letter from a social service agency).

Please note:

- Deadline: Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, with priority given to those in immediate need.
- Limited Availability: Due to limited funds, we are prioritizing applications for the winter months of December, January, February, and March.

For more RESOURCES please visit our resource page for the state of Oregon.

Together, we can make a difference. UMOJI Team