

Community News
Sunday, September 22nd 2019

Please Scroll Down for all of the Community News!

Kids Coding Class Learn how to build games in Scratch. Taught by High School Boy Scouts. It's easy! Sign up for Saturdays from 10:30am-12:00pm October 5th, November 2nd & December 7th, Corte Madera Library. For children ages 8 & up For flyer and more information click here.

Marissa Joy Ganz NY Broadway Training Classes New! Sessions and Master Classes! Click here for more information or to register

Registration for St. Patrick CYO Basketball for 2018-19 is now open through October 6 for all 4th-8th graders - girls and boys! More information can be found here.

Evaluations will be mid-October. Once we have specific dates and times, we will let everyone know and post on the webpage. The final schedule for the season will be set late-September/early October. You should plan:

- Players will be assigned to a team late October.
- Practices will likely start the second week of November.
- Pre-season tournaments are played on the Thanksgiving break and weekends in December. Usually teams play in 1 or 2 tournaments.
- First league games will be the first weekend of January 4-5.

The North Bay Science Discovery Day is a FREE event with over one hundred hands-on exhibits to get kids excited about education and careers in STEM. Our target audience is grades 4-8. The event will be held at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds on October 26. Click here for more info.

Join us at Dedication to Special Education's 16th Annual Golf Tournament Fundraiser on Friday, September 27th, 2019 at the beautiful Indian Valley Golf Club in Novato. We are looking forward to a great day of golf followed by our Community Party, raffle, and auction. Dedication to Special Education (DSE) is a volunteer parent group working to improve special education and build community for 4,000 students with special needs and their families in Marin County public schools. Since its founding in 1997, DSE has invested $2,500,000 in our schools. To learn more about DSE, to register for golf, or to donate please visit us at specialed.org/golf.

TOWN HALL: Youth, School Policy, Parenting and the Law

Thursday, September 26, 2019, 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Ross School Library

Join us for a discussion about our kids, our schools, our community and the laws that protect them. From social host ordinance to restorative justice, this is your chance to ask the experts and share ideas. Panel includes law enforcement, TUHSD Director of Student Services, the Marin County District Attorney and others.

Hosted by Marin Healthy Youth Partnerships

Please RSVP: <https://mhyp-town-hall-092619.eventbrite.com>

Click here for additional information.

An Evening With David and Nic Sheff, local authors of Beautiful Boy and Tweak, moderated by Michael Krasny of KQED.

October 16, 7:00-8:30 pm

Angelico Hall at Dominican University

Local authors David and Nic Sheff will discuss their new book, “High: Everything You Want to Know About Drugs, Alcohol and Addiction”. This is an incredible opportunity for parents and youth to understand the risks of experimenting with drugs and how stress, pressure and confusion can trigger adolescent substance use in Marin County. Advance registration for this free event is recommended as it is likely to sell out. Go to marincommunityread.org to RSVP and learn about the “Community Book Read” of High, which is available now in our school library and local book sellers.

Motherload Screening MotherLoad will be shown at the Fairfax Ballpark on October 11 at 7:00 pm. Local filmmaker, Liz Canning, created the documentary over 8 years and it hits all our talking points for transforming society through the freedom and joy of "driving" kids by cargo-bikes. This award-winning film is available to show at schools and in communities. Read more and watch the trailer: <http://motherloadmovie.com/welcome>

Tam Talk on Cannabis and Vaping September 24th, 6:30pm - 8:00pm at the Mill Valley Community Center Click here to rsvp and for more information.