

Kyle Scott Lee

Brooklyn Based Ceramic Artist,
Collector & Instructor

Kyle Scott Lee, Monday Morning Eye Candy, 2020.

Artist:

Kyle Scott Lee was born and based in Brooklyn, New York.

His ceramic pieces are inspired by Jean-Michel Basquiat with their abstract colorful glazes, black stripes and amphora shapes. He teaches pottery at the Educational Alliance Art School in Manhattan, and he adores teaching. He has exhibited his pieces all across the East coast, London, and Paris.

Lee is the founder of BKLYN CLAY: public ceramics studio for events, classes, and etc.

<https://ceramicmelt.com/>

Questions:

Artist: Who inspires Kyle Scott Lee?

Artwork: What shapes do you see in Lee's ceramic piece?

World: Who do you think sees his art?

Audience: What do the colors make you feel in KSL's piece?

Kevin Sniper

Ceramic Artist

Kevin Snipes, Nappy Head 01, 2015

Artist:

Kevin Snipes is a ceramicist based in Cleveland, Ohio.

He makes his ceramics out of porcelain clay and cuts out shapes and adds texture to the pieces to emphasize the figure he puts on them later.

He leaves the figures uncolored for his audience to see themselves in his art. He didn't want to represent one race. He makes his figures childlike to maintain the innocence of his art.

Questions:

Artist: Who inspires Kevin Sniper?

Artwork: What textures do you see in Snipes' ceramic piece?

World: Who does Sniper represent in his ceramics?

Audience: How does Snipe include his audience in his art?

Learning Targets:

- ★ Students will learn about our key artists: Kyle Scott Lee and Kevin Snipe.
- ★ Students will learn how to paint and paint their ceramic charms.

Vocabulary:

- Ceramic(s): A form of clay hardened by clay.
- Color: What we see because of reflected light.
- Texture: The look and feel of something.
- Shape: Where the front of a line meets the back of the same line.