TC, TideKeeper, Sera, Rylae, VampireKitty, Loki, KampferWolf, CAThulu

Woooo... late, late Paw-Post here - barely gonna make midnight deadline with this one. I ended up being quite busy after work tonight with some other errands. Anyway! Lots of great pictures on this one again, and once more, some tough choices to try and pick the Most-Pawesome from, so be sure at a minimum to check the runner ups!

Been an exciting week! Still waiting for Saturday so I'm able to pick a puppy I received for Christmas! Hope everyone has had a swell week! :)

It's been an awesome week so far! A birthday, time off, and plenty of gaming to be done. A huge thanks to all those that sent me wishes! I hope the week's been as good to you all as it has been to me so far, everyone take care of yourselves and keep the paws coming! :P Let's see what awaits us down below..

I wanna wish Lokibro a happy bday. He super deserves it! I hope everyone is doing well, and sorry for my recent absence, been dealing with this hip problem and such.

🍷 Fur-In-Need 🍷

Zharr18: O_o Uhhmm... so there's bad luck, real bad luck, and "holy crap, what is going on!?" bad luck - Zharr has had the latter. Just last month, he lost his car due to hitting a deer, and has been trying to get cash for a new car. Down to driving his hubby's car to try and get to work, he had a second accident in bad weather when a transport truck splashed salt and grime on his windshield, and he couldn't see for a moment - in which the person in front of him braked for some reason. He hit the back of them, and got injured. And if THAT wasn't the icing on the cake, a freak accident because of bad food for breakfast a week later broke his front teeth. Just..... wow... So.... more info is in the journal here: <https://www.furaffinity.net/journal/8070582/> - and he has a GoFundMe Page setup here:

<https://www.gofundme.com/car-accident-a-plea-for-help?ssid=858090090&pos=1>

That is just unreal. But nice to see he's at least close to his goal, so if you can help, please consider donating for him - give him some GOOD luck for a change! Please spread the word too if you can to help.

TC's Random Music Pick

Imagine Dragons - "Gold" - 2014

Imagine Dragons has a real knack of coming up with original sounding stuff for all their music (and man, nowadays that is a rare, rare talent). This song just really has a cool sound to it - part electronica, part rock, part pop. It's got a great melody, beat, lots of powerful base, and just a great overall tone to it.

TideKeeper's Random Music Pick

Florence + the Machine - "Shake it Out" - 2011

Both this band and the song have a very special importance in my heart; in particular, this is one of the pick-me-up songs that my dearest friend introduced me to, not long after we'd first met.. I hope it inspires strength in you guys the way it does for me. :3

^_^ Heh, you reminded me this song exists and how much I love it. My sister showed it to me many years back and it invoked a similar feeling.

Wow... never heard this before! Very beautiful and empowering. Nice find Tide!

CAThulu's Random Music Pick

Volbeat - "The Bliss" - 2016

I came across this band last year on the radio. While it was a another song that I had heard, it was 'The Bliss' that really grabbed a hold of me. Hailing from Denmark, Volbeat wanted to try something different then the death metal that is popular in the rock scene there. They went with a metal/ rockabilly fusion that is absolutely solid. It didn't take long before I ran out and bought the album.

And if you really like this song, try listening to it in Danish ^_^.

Most Pawesome Picture

by Syberfab

(C4: nsfw -- m/m -- charr! -- foot-worship)

<https://www.furaffinity.net/view/22570366/>

Ohhh hohoo my... you know, the fact that it's a charr in super-fancy armour who has only taken off his boots to press his paws all over the happy, waiting maw of another... that is just mega sexy. :3 There's something about fancy clothing and being bare-pawed that is SUCH a great tease. But even better, we get a really gorgeous close up of those sexy paws, and we can see that everyone involved is very much enjoying this little adventure. That pretty much ticks all the right boxes to earn Most Pawesome Picture for this week. :)

Character Summary/History:

- Appearance
 - Generally seen in anthropomorphic form that walks digitgrade but can change to feral with the help of his crescent-moon pendant, which gave him his name. The pendant also has the ability to make him grow to macro proportions at his leisure.
 - He is of lean and strong build but not overall muscley.
 - His eyes are of a vibrant dark green-brown color.
 - Has the typical broad otternose and mouth as well as slightly longer and more fluffy, silvery fur around his throat and mouth that reaches down towards his chest area.
 - The rest of his body is covered in thick dark brown / chocolate fur with the exception of his hand- and feetpaws, which are of a darker color, almost black.
 - His hand- and feetpaws each have 5 digits which are webbed and clawed as well as having soft pawpads.

- His private region sports an ample sheath with a feral-looking, almost S-shaped otter-member of around 8 inches in length and 2,5 inches in girth at its base and is of a fleshy color.
- The crotch / tummy area is furthermore adorned with silvery speckled patches of fur just like around his neck and inner ears.
- Personality
 - Shy and timid in nature towards strangers and people he doesn't know but will open up to anyone who is willing to get to know him better. He really likes to cuddle and snuggle with his friends and greatly enjoys a close and open relationship with others that can also include the act of mating for fun (where he likes to take as well as to give). He has a big paw-fetish and likes to take care of his own webbed hand- and footpaws as well as enjoys doing so for others. In terms
 - of macro / micro he loves to be either, being the micro that plays with gentle giants or the gentle giant himself that provides fun and pleasure to micros, especially when it involves footpaws.
- Likes
 - Cuddling, swimming, taking care of his friends, footpaws, mating.
- Dislikes
 - Smoking, drinking, bullying, injustice, closed-minded people, lazy people.

Commenting on Images:

I welcome all kinds of comments on my submissions, even creepy and playful ones if you so desire, I don't mind as long as it doesn't go too crazy - but don't worry, if it does I will tell you so, otherwise, feel free to comment <3

Some Q&A:

(TC) Hiya Blacky - welcome to the Paw-Post! Do you prefer Blacky or... Blackymoon or another nickname, first off?

(Blacky) Heya TC, thank you very much for having this otter here and showing interest in my ottery self!

And Blacky is fine, rolls over the tongue faster than my full name :3

(TC) Blacky it is then! You seem like a very fun loving and active sorta otter! What are some of your favourite hobbies and things to do?

(Blacky) Churr~~ fun loving definately! But active, hehe, only sometimes to tell you the truth ^^; I tend to be a somewhat lazy and laid-back otter during times too, enjoying some good rest and enjoying some cuddly-time with others.

A favourite hobby would be swimming of course, us otters loooove swimming! Letting our sleek bodies glide almost effortlessly through the liquid is just mind-relaxing and feels nice when the temperature is just right.

As for things to do, well, I otterly love to chat up with other cute and sweet fluffies, trying to get to know them and if the chemistry is just right, maybe even enjoy some mutual naughty fun together - especially when it comes to paws <3

(TC) Heh - well, balance is good - can't be 100% active or you'd burn out! Here here on the water too - though for me, it's kayaking that keeps me in it. :3 Now when it comes to paws, you probably guessed that those handsome webbed toes of yours are a big reason why you're here in this interview. Do you have a lot of folks who take interest in your footpaws?

(Blacky) Oh, you mean these two? wiggles my webbed otterfeetpaws for you right in front of your face <3

(TC) whimpers softly and squirms a bit in his chair

(Blacky) Hehe yeah, there are some fluffies that really love them and I feel kinda flustered that they love them so much.

Sharing my love for footpaws is always a nice and good thing to get to know me better - and just think of all the possible things you can do with them, both sweet and naughty <3 So I really don't mind if they'd want a closer look at them, want to play with or worship them, I love to share that footpaw-love with others :3

(TC) S..so... um, they are definitely amazing soles. What about yourself? Do you like personally footpaws as well, as in like them yourself as much as others like yours? If so, explain as best you can.

(Blacky) Oh yes! This otter surely loves footpaws as well, mutual paw-loving is the best thing ever because for me it creates a special kind of bond that lets you experience each others closeness in a different but still kind of close way, as contrary to cuddling or snuggling for example (which are also very high on my interest-list).

Massaging a nice pair of footpaws also gets your own mind off of things as you give your partner a relaxing time and pleasure at the same time, maybe throwing in some licks, kisses or toe-noms, or going the naughty way to ante-up the experience if you catch my drift :3

(TC) Toe-noms. ♥ Hee, so awesome - and agreed - there's a really unique quality to being loving and intimate with feet. Do you find your own feet as attractive as others do?

(Blacky) Churr~~ hehe, I would be lying if I said no, I really love my webbyfeets and as such try to take care of them as best as I could so they are always in top shape and up for a nice paw-loving if others so desire <3

(TC) That's awesome! One thing about this place is that footpaws come in just about every shape and variety! Do you have a particular favourite in terms of species or type?

(Blacky) Hmmm~~ that's a tough question. Objectively I really love any kind of paws, but I think I'm more leaning towards the more feral type of footpaws instead of the human-shaped ones, like my own, with webbing in between and a smaller dewclaw on the side.

But as long as they are nice and shapey, I don't really have a preferred species or type. Just think about the feeling of a nice and big, squishy dragonpaw looming and smooshing you underneath its warmth, or a canine-shaped footpaw in macro proportions rubbing over you. Both would be feeling awesome, don't you think? <3

(TC) Mmm yes, all very happy thoughts. :3 What's your favourite thing to do with a nice pair of footpaws, or perhaps, have done to your paws?

(Blacky) Anything a paw-lover like you yourself can possibly imagine hehe, from massaging to gentle loving, caressing, and naughty play. Since the feelings are mutual I also love to indulge others in just the same kind of fun time with my own paws, rubbing them over their bodies or letting them enjoy them in a relaxing fashion <3

(TC) murs happily at the thought Mmm... all sounds very lovely to me! So you mentioned macro foot-play a moment ago - what sort of things do you get up to when you have a willing macro friend to work with?

(Blacky) Churr~~ oh, you know, all the possible things that can come with such a nice size-difference!

Like my whole body being smooshed between two large, hot and soft paws, being gently and tenderly rubbed against the sole or squishy pawpads by the other paw at the macros leisure. Or being pushed between those large toes, squeezing my head / body nicely between them, maybe wrapping my arms around that single toe to give it a nice hug, kiss or lick.

Or for a more breath-taking experience and view, let the macro stand right over you, lifting his / her paw loomingly over you as he/she descends it slowly, teasing you by softly stomping you into the ground, not lethally, but with a nice and gentle pressure as that giant footpaw engulfs your whole body, rubbing over all the nice places of your body, trusting the macro not hurting you but having such power over you by only with one of his footpaws or even one of his toes, giving the macro a sense of power-pleasure as well, maybe getting naughty up there too <3 Or giving that tender macro-paw a nice rub-down, sharing the mutual paw-love with the macro. Or other kind of naughty activities with other macros, letting them use my wiggly otterbody as a extra toy when they give each other a nice and gentle footjob, just imagine the messy end that would entail! <3

Suffice to say, it'd be the same when I would be the macro, letting those micros pamper and worship my webbed footpaws all nice and sweetly, smooshing them over them if they so desire :3

So you see, there's all kinds of (naughty) playthings I'd enjoy with a sexy macro footpaw or being the macro myself <3

(TC) whimpers more and squirms Um... that uh... is a fantastic answer. Uhh... different non paw question - what's your favourite food? Drink?

(Blacky) Churr~~ this otter looooves ice-tea and sweetened drinks, you can say I'm quite the sweet-tooth hehe :3

As for food ... mmm either a good serving of lasagna or a nice smoked salmon, I'm an otter after all <3

(TC) Mmm - iced tea rocks, though after I decided to stop using sugar, it was hard to find something to sweeten it properly (and safely) - I used Monk Fruit. XD You always seem to be such a positive, helpful and happy otter. Is there anything that bugs you - you know, like a pet peeve?

(Blacky) I always try to be as helpful and nice to others as possible if they are nice to me in return. What bugs me would be ignorant people or bullies that pick on others and use them for their gain in a deceptive manner. Also, as I'm a critter from the sea and like the sea-breeze, I don't really like the smell of smoking, just reeks and stings in my sensitive otternose, so I try to avoid such critters.

(TC) You are most certainly a very nice guy and easy to approach. What advice would you give to anyone wanting to meet you and get to know this handsome otter and his lovely paws? :)

(Blacky) Churr~~ well, there isn't much to say other than: Just poke me (with your paws ^^) and wait for a reply!

I am often quite busy, so replies can vary at times, but I will try to respond to every poke someone gives me, so please don't be shy and just contact me, I won't bite you or anything :3 The only thing I am asking you is to be nice and civil and don't overrun me with things on the first contact, but that should be common courtesy I think.

So, just poke me and my webbypaws will answer when they're able to, I'm really easy to talk to once the chemistry seems to work out between the two of us, but also respect it when I don't have time at the moment due to being busy and we're cool <3

(TC) And is there anything you would like to say to the folks of the Paw-Post?

(Blacky) Churr~~ I don't really know what to say other than thank you very much for having me here and showing interest in this fluffy otter. I was pretty surprised when you wanted to have an interview with my wiggly self <3 Also thanks for doing this kind of Paw-Post thing, it's always a nice thing of others to keep the community interacting with each other in these times where most people seem to be isolating themselves more and more and only objectively keeping contact with others, so keep on doing the pawsie-stuff, nice work you guys! :3

Thank you Blacky! What a super nice guy to work with for the interview. When checking out his pages, be sure to check his favourites because that's where most of the pictures of him are (not in his gallery). :) Now, everyone go out and have yourselves a good weekend!
