

Both Sides of the Argument Choice Assignment:

Student Name: _____

Instructions:

Choose one of the following topics and complete the requirements below

Choice #1:

Funding of Religious Schools – pg 110 – 111

A) Complete the idea organizer on the other side of this sheet – Examine both sides of the issue

“Should all religious schools receive government funding?”

B) Once again, you are before the Supreme Court of Canada and are arguing either for or against the above issue. What key constitutional points you would argue?

4U Response – 1 Page Max, 12 point font, sourced properly

4C Response on Google Slides with websites sourced

OR

Choice #2:

RJR-Macdonald Inc. v. Canada – pg. 117 -118

A) Complete the idea organizer on the other side of this sheet – Examine both sides of the issue

“Should Tobacco Companies be allowed to advertise their products?”

B) Once again, you are before the Supreme Court of Canada and are arguing either for or against the above issue. What key constitutional points you would argue in your opening statement?

4U Response – 1 Page Max, 12 point font, sourced properly

4C Response on Google Slides with websites sourced

Evaluation

Content / Criteria	NE	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
-Idea Organizer (TI) – (A1, A2, C2)	Not completed	-very limited analysis	-some analysis	-considerable analysis	-exceptional analysis
-Response (AP) (A2, C4)	Not Completed	-minimal support	-some support	-at least 3 concrete pieces of support	-more than 3 concrete and well developed pieces of support

Idea Organizer: Topic?:_____

Yes, they should	No, they should not
Which side will you argue? Why?	