

Literature in the Natural World

Part 1 Example: Choose a book

1. What Biome is the setting of your book? temperate rainforest\taiga
2. List 10 examples (quote) from the book that confirms that this is the biome, include page number with the quote . (Examples can include location, wild animals, wild plants, precipitation or temperatures)
 1. "In the Olympic Peninsula of Northwest Washington State..." (pg.1)
 2. "Everything was green: the trees, their trunks covered with moss, their branches hanging with a canopy of it, the ground covered with ferns. (pg.8)
 3. "I would have to make a date to visit Olympia or Seattle..." (pg.38)
 4. "I know, I'll stop in Montesano and Olympia – and Tacoma if I have to." (pg.80)
 5. "Seattle is a big city – you could get lost," (pg.80)
 6. "We're going hiking in the Goat Rocks Wilderness, just south of Rainier." (pg.108)
 7. "I think it's south of Mount Rainier,..." (pg.112)
 8. "Too many bears." (pg.112)
 9. "... with gorgeous, dense green forest edging the road most of the way and the wide Quillayute River..." (pg.114)p
 10. "... reaching to uneven summits, and crowned with austere, soaring firs." (pg.115)
 11. "It snaked around the Sitka spruces and the hemlocks, the yews and the maples." (pg.136)
 12. "The ferns stood higher than my head..." (pg.137)
 13. "Why are you in Port Angeles?" (pg.172)
 14. "Bears?" (pg.215)
 15. "Grizzly is Emmett's favorite." (pg.215)
 16. "Mountain lion." (pg.215)
 17. "There's always plenty of deer and elk here,..." (pg.215)
 18. "... in the deep shade of a huge fir tree." (pg.263)
 19. " We passed over the bridge at the Calawah River,..." (pg.320)
 20. "He led me a few feet through the tall, wet ferns and draping moss, around a massive hemlock tree, and we were there, on the edge of an enormous open field in the lap of the Olympic peaks." (pg.366)

