

You need to start with The All-Inclusive Paradox.

As I was moving through my Self-Wisdom Journey this morning, I came upon Three New Fears that have finally surfaced so I can deal with them.

These Three Fears had loomed in the distance, but now my Learning Journey of The Discovered Self has me blocked due to the lack of resolution on these Three Fears.

For the Record, it is really weird, having all the Language to plainly say all of these things without obstruction.

“Cherry Pickers”

“Lessers”

“Aggressors”

I do not like – nor do I approve – of these people. That’s right. I do not like them. They are my “Nemesis.” They are the reason why I have apprehensions toward Socializing. They are Mask-Wearers, Fools, Oasis People, Delusional, and Hostile. And each one has significant characteristics that only they utilize “for defense,” which is their Mental Illness, which none of them think they have.

And that is the Problem. They are Mentally Ill people who think they are Healthy enough to Mingle, while Spreading their Condition to others, while believing they are Innocent and “Fine.”

They are the Typhoid Mary’s of Mental Illness.

“Cherry Pickers”

These are the people who use me. They want only The Truth that serves them and their Logical Fallacy while they throw away the Truth that proves them wrong. They are a Type of Oasis People who pose as “Student,” when they are really Bottom Feeders looking for Proof to support their Lies.

I can smell them a million miles away, and I keep them at a distance. They are first to slander me to others because “I cut them off.”

Often, they turn into Lessers who try and break me to conform with a Holier-Than-Thou arrogance, while simultaneously lacking the skill to Measure Knowledge to know Teacher from Student.

No. I cut these Cherry Pickers off and deny them the Fruits of My Labor so they can't bastardize The Truth for Their Lies.

Access Denied.

“Aggressors”

These are the People who only feel Safe when “they are the Biggest.” Their “Pedestal of Perceived Power” was obtained only through Ill-Gain and Cheating, and they know it. They are insecure and arrogant. They have to always “defeat the dragon” to always continue showcasing their unearned “Pedestal of Perceived Power.”

And anyone bigger than them attracts Aggressors like Moths to Flame. Ugh. I get A LOT of Aggressors.

People who think they can “take me down” or out-Logicize me with Rhetoric – bored and amused look given to the audience – all so they can boast me as their Trophy-Kill to prove they have earned their unearned “Pedestal of Perceived Power.”

They are also first to challenge me “to prove myself,” which I've done since 2015, in over 15 Books and 1,800 YouTube Videos, 4 Websites, and The Radical Global Healing Plan “Ensemble.”

I have “Proven” it.

They need to go read the 10+ Years worth of Proven Ashavana Records containing over 40 Years with Poven, A Priori Research backed by Empirical Evidence and The Ashavana Scientific Method.

No. I send these Fools to the Back of the Line.

Access Denied.

“Lessers”

Lessers are really Aggressors in disguise. I call them “Lessers” just to piss them off so they know who they are.

Only a “Lesser” would get pissed at the word “Lesser.”

In Truth, they are Passive Aggressors.

People who think “Everyone is Equal.” Which is True... People are Priceless. But a Skill and Knowledge is not at all “Equal.” Nor is Quality.

Lessers have The Hierarchy, Knowledge, Skills, and Quality all confused. Their Proverbial “Horse” is very much before the Cart. They are so “Anti-Hierarchy” that they live Back-Against-The-Wall in Fear, rejecting anything that is – in Fact Hierarchical in Nature – and that includes The Educational System.

So Lessers boast that “Everyone is A Teacher” while they force their Non-Consensual Lessons onto everyone else. They are also Cherry Pickers. Always.

No. I hand these people the “Typhoid Mary” Card and send them to the Back of the Line where they can Climb Up The Ladder just like everybody else.

Denying the Hierarchical System of Wisdom, Teaching, and Learning does not negate Mother Nature’s Natural Selection System, not even for their Ego.
