

Visual Novel Pitches

June 2022

Remember, whichever one is chosen will be very short! Keep your expectations fairly low, as I'm new to this and slightly short on time! It'll be less of a proper VN and more of a rather short choose-your-own-adventure with a GUI and lewd stuff... Which is kinda what a VN is, I guess, but this is my first go at one, so I'm starting small!

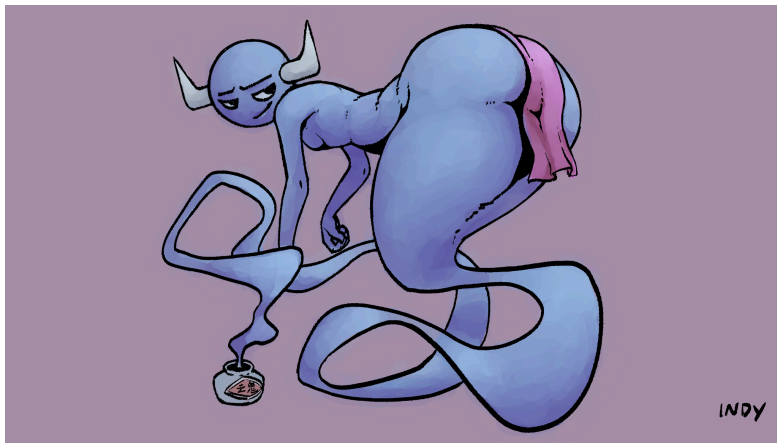

Digital Monster (Renamon)

A tall, curvy, flirtatious Renamon squeezes out of your computer one day and takes it upon themselves to make themselves at home, whether you like it or not. A D-Ark Digivice suddenly appears as well, complete with a deck of rather peculiar cards.

Ghost Boy

Shortly after you are gifted a decorative antique jar, paranormal phenomena seem to occur around you.

Dungeon Run

Only one person responded to your listing on the Quest Board at the Adventurer's Guild... You don't know how reliable they are, but at least they're cute!

Your dungeon-running partner would have to be voted on if this option wins, but here are a few options, all pulled from a short story I never finished:

- Ranger - A female elf who uses ranged weapons, a short sword, and some wind magic. Clever and insightful when she needs to be, but kind of air-headed at times and gets distracted easily.
- Cleric - An androgynous male goblin who uses holy magic and a mace. Often mistaken for a girl. Timid and kind personality.
- Huntress - A female (transgender) dark elf who uses various weapons and trapping tools. Dexterous enough to use almost any weapon effectively as long as it isn't too heavy.
- Rogue - A female lacertian (lizardfolk) who uses daggers, poison, and stealth. Tall, lanky, stern, and sassy.
- Psychic - A male flos (my plant species) who uses powerful psychokinetic powers and a whip, which he controls with his psychic power. Gets headaches and feels sick if he uses his psychic powers too much.

A Date With Griselda

You have been set up on a blind date with the gloomy flos girl, Griselda. Don't blow it!

INDY

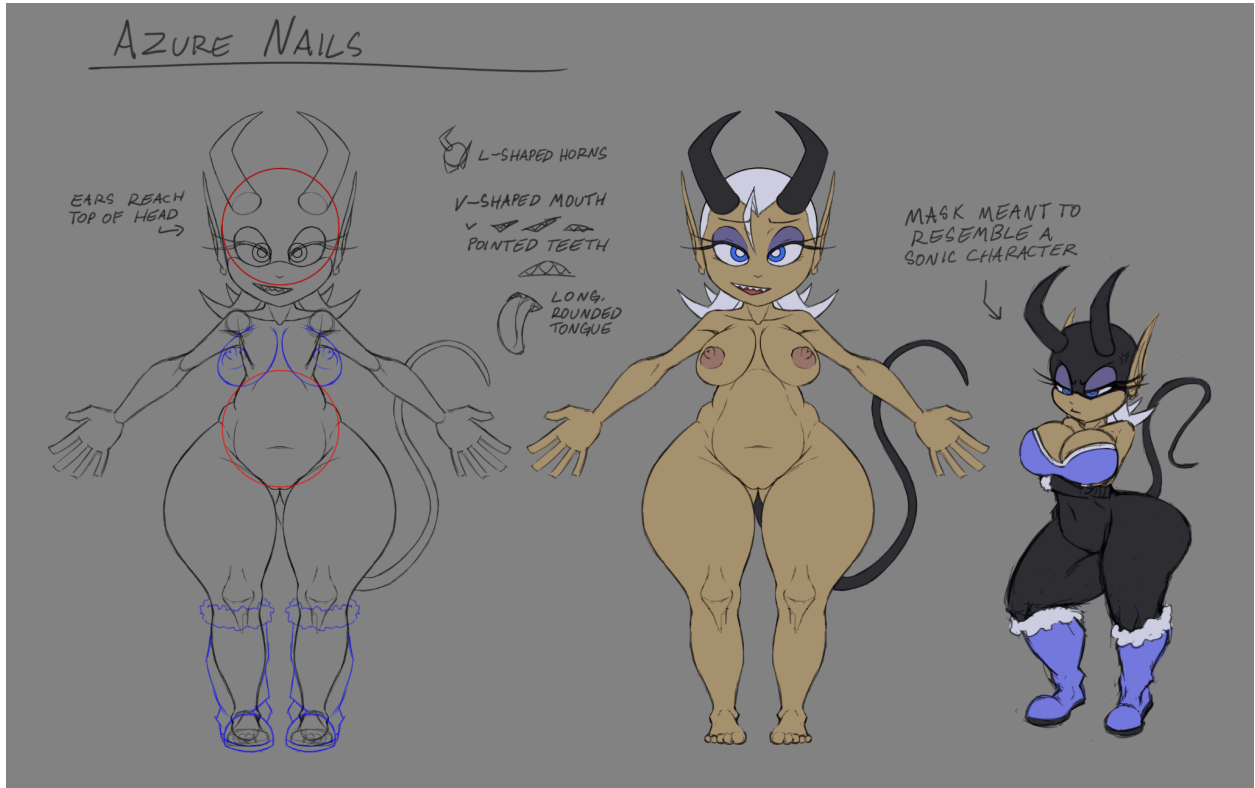

Lady Dragon

You have been captured by a giant lady dragon while exploring her domain, a mountain. She seems rather lonely, and has an odd habit of sometimes speaking in rhymes.

Imp Invasion

A diminutive demon claiming to be a succubus invades your home, but misses her mark and teleports into your living room instead, waking you up. She is, however, dedicated to her mission of extracting your semen by any means necessary.

A.S.H.

A wide-hipped, artificially-intelligent combat android has defected from the mercenary organization that owns him, and he has taken refuge in your home. Oddly, he appears to have some anatomical traits you wouldn't think a combat android would need...
