

Worship Philosophy:

As we recognize what Worship is, we must first look to the scriptures. Hebrews 12:28 tells us – “Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe.” Colossians 3:16-17 – “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” As we worship “vertically” to our King, we also need to recognize the importance of the church as it pertains to us as saints as we “horizontally” worship; reminding one another who it is we are singing to. Worship is more than just the songs we sing, it’s vaster than that. Worship the Father in your daily walk of the Christian faith. Worship is not only the psalms and hymns we sing collectively as a congregation. It is the reading of scripture and the message as well. To effectively lead the saints, we must know who Jesus is and what God commands and what the scripture states. We must lead in congregational psalms, hymns, and melodies. We must teach sound doctrine, biblical scripture, and theological truth based on the Bible throughout our worship music. We must sing with hearts full of faith and truth in who we know as our king and savior. Here at Creek Path Baptist Church, our goal is to capture the true nature of God and how that reflects to us as His sons and daughters.

Creek Path Choir:

Choir is open to any and everybody who wishes to join in the music ministry here at Creek Path Baptist Church. The expectations are few but include the following: Must be a child of God & be devoted to both practices and rehearsal.

- Sunday Choir Rehearsal (10:15 A.M. – 10:25 A.M.) Choir Room
- Wednesday Choir Practice (7 P.M. – 8 P.M.) Sanctuary

Engage Praise Team:

The praise team consists of instrumentalists and vocalists. Required practice and rehearsal is an expectation. To join the praise team the process consists of an assessment of vocal and instrumental ability. In addition, and of most importance a conversation of the heartbeat of the individual and ours.
