When i get up every morning
I wish i could stay at home
Cause each and every day i hurt
So i try to tell myself

That i'll know

One
Watch the milk go down the drain
Two
Flows like a pretty gown
Three
Stomach growls, ignore the pain
Four
I am so over eating
Five
Toss most of my meals away
Six
I can never be alright
Seven
"I'm not that hungry today"
Eight
All these pills make me hurt so
Nine
A monster that i've become
Ten
Childhood too long ago
Eleven
I know that i will succumb
Twelve
Twelve months inside of a year

That i know

It's like i can't even control
Everything inside my head
And it all gets so confusing
When i'd be worth the same dead
Hate my own personality
A shroud i cannot even shed

Wind in my hair
It's so unfair

It’s never clear
Feel so much fear
Never enough
Chains and handcuffs

Never the one, i’m always too much
Never the sun, lay in moss so lush is it forgiveness if you were never mad?

Or is it that I don’t care enough to rage?

But i just hurt deep inside
Why do i just wanna cry?
Everything i love has died
I eat less to shrink my thighs
Noone knows where i reside
Never appointed a guide
All my pain comes alongside
All the whispers in my mind
And only one voice is mine
So i try to tell myself

That i’ll know

One
Two
Three
Four
I am so over eating
Five
Toss most of my meals away
Six
I can never be alright
Seven
“I’m not that hungry today”
Eight
All these pills make me hurt so
Nine
Ten

Eleven
I know that i will succumb
Twelve

I don’t know

The beeping echoes in the ward
Decaying since i was born
I know i will always mourn
If only i’d been stillborn

I could have been a loved lil’ child
Yet now i’ve a frozen smile
Yet i feel so fucking vile
Yet i’ve a chaotic style
Yet i search every square mile
Yet damaged by my lifestyle
Yet thoughts don’t come single-file
Yet this heart bleeds all the while
And if you’re going to leave then leave so fast
If I can’t be
Who you need
Leave me be
To bleed

Why won’t you leave?
You know i need
Time to be me
Alone in the dark
Remembering the marks
I’d left on my arms
And legs

Why can’t i be
All that you need
But i’m just

A cut that always bleeds
A heart that never beats
A lie between the teeth
An armour made of beads
A warning no one heeds

A heart saying “proceed”
Way up in the nosebleeds
I can’t even cry
Remember my lies
I said to keep you mine
And to keep me yours

I won’t let you mislead
I know it’s all just greed
For love that i can’t keep Killing all of me
You are like the air i breathe
I know that you won’t concede
And yet i can’t stop plead-

-ing for release
I want to be free
From my agony
I feel such unease
So set
 Me
  Free

So i can see the numbers

One
Two
Three
Four
I am so over eating
Five
Six
Seven
“I’m not that hungry today”
Eight
All these pills make me hurt so
Nine
