

List Of Archetypes

The Hero – Courageous, determined, and on a journey to overcome obstacles.

The Mentor – Wise guide or teacher helping the hero grow.

The Rebel / Outlaw – Challenges authority, seeks revolution or change.

The Lover – Values relationships, passion, and emotional connection.

The Everyman / Orphan – Relatable, grounded, seeks belonging.

The Innocent / Child – Pure, optimistic, often naive.

The Caregiver – Nurturing, compassionate, puts others first.

The Creator / Artist – Imaginative, driven to build, invent, or express.

The Explorer / Seeker – Curious, adventurous, always looking for new experiences.

The Ruler – Seeks control, order, and leadership.

The Sage – Seeks truth, wisdom, and insight.

The Jester / Trickster – Brings humor, challenges seriousness, reveals truth through play.

The Healer – Uses knowledge, energy, or compassion to help others restore balance.

The Mystic / Visionary – Deeply intuitive or spiritual, sees beyond the visible world.

The Alchemist – Transforms the ordinary into the extraordinary; symbolizes inner change.

The Artist – Seeks beauty and meaning, often emotional, expressive, or introspective.

The Storyteller – Keeper of memory, weaves truth and imagination to convey meaning.

The Advocate / Activist – Stands up for justice and the rights of others.

The Shadow Self – Represents fears, hidden impulses, or untapped power.

The Survivor – Resilient, strong, has overcome hardship.

The Queen / King – Embodies mature leadership, legacy, and sovereignty.

The Judge – Seeks fairness and truth but can also be overly critical or rigid.

The Magician – Master of transformation, intuition, and unseen forces.

The Fool – Innocent, spontaneous, brings unexpected wisdom through mistakes.

The Guardian / Gatekeeper – Protects access to deeper knowledge, change, or initiation.

The Student – Always learning, open to growth and new experiences.

The Teacher – Shares knowledge, supports growth in others, acts as a guide.

The Builder – Constructs, organizes, or lays the foundation for lasting systems.

The Dreamer – Imaginative, visionary, future-oriented.

The Pilgrim – On a spiritual or personal journey seeking meaning.

The Martyr – Sacrifices for others, sometimes at personal cost.

The Companion – Loyal friend, offers emotional support and camaraderie.

The Outsider – Feels different or excluded; can bring new perspectives.

The Innovator / Inventor – Thinks outside the box, develops new solutions or ideas.

The Caretaker of Place – Tied to land, nature, or ancestral memory.

The Peacemaker – Seeks harmony, resolves conflict, acts with empathy.

The Wanderer – Not attached to one place or role, always searching for home or self.