

Snapshot Seminars

in Physiology, Pharmacology and Neuroscience, Mondays 1-2 pm

Online or in person @Lecture theatre C42, Biomedical Sciences Building occasionally followed by coffee and biscuits

For questions contact petra.fischer@bristol.ac.uk, johan.alsio@bristol.ac.uk, k.long@bristol.ac.uk

	Speaker	Talk title	Zoom/ In person	Rec. available
24-Apr	Dr Megan Jackson University of Bristol	What makes a mouse motivated?	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
15-May	Dr Maria Lopes Pires Imperial College London	How cell-specific COX-2 deletion influences key cardiovascular functions	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
Wed! 17-May 1-2 PM	Dr Eduardo Martin Mouraud EPFL Lausanne	Towards brain-controlled neuromodulation therapies to address gait and balance deficits in patients with Parkinson's disease	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
22-May	Dr Ross Purple University of Bristol	The magic of mushrooms: Cellular and network effects of psilocybin in the rat prefrontal cortex	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
5-Jun	Dr Giovanni Marsicano Neurocentre Magendie, Bordeaux, France	Cannabinoid Receptor Signalling in the Brain: Extracting Specificity from Ubiquity	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
12-June	Professor Neil Morgan University of Birmingham	Identification and investigation of novel platelet disorders	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
19-June	Dr Davor Pavlovic University of Birmingham	Regulation of intracellular sodium in the heart in health and disease	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
26-June	Professor Amy Milton University of Cambridge	Reconsolidation-based approaches for the treatment of mental health disorders	In person + Coffee (D1)	Planned
3-July	Postgraduate researchers University of Bristol	Callum Young, Andrew Shrimpton, Dasha Anderson, Pasquale Landolfi, Mehtaab Chaudhry, Jake Ahern	In person + Coffee (D1)	No

sponsored by

join at www.physoc.org