

Course Overview : Introduction to Law

1. Upon graduation at East, scholars will be able to independently use social studies practices to construct an evidence based argument about historical issues.
2. Upon graduation at East, scholars will be able to independently use social studies practices to interpret and analyze the past and present and inform one's thinking (actions) about the future.
3. Upon graduation at East, scholars will be able to independently use social studies practices to promote social justice by researching challenges in our community, analyzing underlying factors, and developing strategies to address these issues.

Nov 2 classes	Dec 7 classes	Jan 8 classes	Feb 6 classes	March 8 classes	April 8 classes	May 8 classes	June 6 classes
------------------	------------------	------------------	------------------	--------------------	--------------------	------------------	-------------------

September & October Individual Rights and Responsibilities.	November & December Unit: 2 The Importance of the Supreme Court	January Unit: 3 Copyright Infringements , Negligence, Torts, Class Action Lawsuits	January & February Unit: 4 Trials, Court, Mock Trial, Task for roles, Opening Statements, Exhibit Analysis	March & April Unit: 5 Family Court: Adoption, Marriage, Divorce, Child Support, Parent Child Relationship	May & June Unit: 6 Current events; Election, transgender, abortion, Death Penalty etc.
--	---	---	--	---	--