

After reading the story answer the questions below.

- a. What are some keywords from the story?
- b. How does looking at the whole sentence help us better understand the key words?
- c. What can we do to better understand difficult sentences?
- d. Choose a difficult sentence. What do the sentences mean that surround the difficult sentence?
- e. Do you have a better understanding of the paragraph now that you have looked at keyword and difficult sentences?
- f. Does the story contain any lists? How can we use a list to better understand keywords?
- g. Can you identify comparisons from the story? What can we understand from these comparisons?
- h. Does the story contain opposites? How can we use opposites to understand the story?

- i. What are four things to look for to help understand context?