

Footage Credits: Falling Down the Trash Goth Rabbit Hole

A list of all footage and fan works not officially released by the band Ghost or where a burned-in title otherwise doesn't make it totally clear what the footage is or where to find it. The sources listed here are the videos I pulled my footage from. I have done my best to track down original footage whenever possible, but in some cases I had to rely on re-uploads or on compilations that did not list their original sources. In the case of re-uploads where the original source was clear (eg. television performances), the original source is listed in the burned-in title in the video and the source of the upload is listed in this document. This citation format I made up is sort of reliant on works having titles, which isn't necessarily the case on TikTok and Instagram, so in those cases I've listed the captions minus hashtags.

I didn't reference or use this specifically, but I did want to give a huge acknowledgement to just another sad zoomer's video "an unhelpful guide to ghost" (https://youtu.be/O0AMpQ9uu\_g?si=P66GQkYbKR1BCDzd). It was the single most useful source I found in getting my head wrapped around the lore back when I thought I was just giving it a cursory nod in a pretty straightforward song analysis video (lol, lmao, that's how they get you) and an invaluable window into the vibes of the online fandom as this thing became what it is now.
