

SL: Wait, why would you need this?

Hi martin!

As a member of the gym community I always have new people who create content about the gym being pushed by the algorithm to me.

And your content by far is possibly the best I've seen.

You do a fantastic job of providing information and making it entertaining to watch.

I noticed you don't have a website, now I know what you may be thinking "why would I need or want a website?"

Well Martin, building a website can be incredibly profitable and will give you unlimited potential to spread your name out there

Not to get too personal but allow me to ask you a question. If your youtube career came to an end, is there something you could turn to that brings you a steady and reliable pay?

Thank you for your time Martin

Regards,
Jamie Williams
