Cub Scout Uniform & Handbook

Pack 406 uniforms are from the waist up.

Class A Uniform: This is the official uniform of Cub Scouts. Lion Cub Scouts wear a t-shirt. Tigers, Wolves, Bears, and Webelos wear a blue shirt, while AOLs wear the khaki Scouts BSA shirt. "Class A uniform" is not a BSA official term, but it is widely used by packs.

- Purchase from the Steve Matthews Scout Shop in person 12500 N Interstate Hwy 35, Austin, TX 78753 or online at https://www.bsacac.org/shop/.
- Uniform shirt, uniform cap, neckerchief, rank neckerchief slide, and uniform belt.
    - The Blue shirt is for Kindergarten through 4th grade.
    - The Brown shirts are for AOL, 5th grade and up.
    - Buy the uniform shirt a little big so it can be worn for a few years.
- Pack numbers 406, World Crest, 1910 Crest Ring, Capitol Area Council Patch

Class B Uniform: Class B uniforms are Scouting-related t-shirts. They can be pack t-shirts, day camp t-shirts, or any other Scouting t-shirt. They are officially called special purpose or activity uniforms.

- The pack shirt is included in the pack dues. These will be distributed at the first pack meeting, then by request thereafter.

Handbook: The handbooks are nice to have for the scouts to follow along with the adventures (activities). However, the Scouting app and Scoutbook online are tools that have the same content at no cost. Discuss these options with your den.
