

Write your paragraph here:

One of the key themes in Passage I is how a father feels the natural bond of his son to keep his safe. We see this in the text when the narrator says “No car must splash him. No car drive too near to his shadow”(line number 4-5). This shows his dedication to protect and love his son.