PART 1

- smiley is wrapping the gift for his brother
  - has a green ribbon (thats his favorite color!)
  - glitter! who doesnt love glitter! its gotta be special for his special day!
- runs out of house, passes by romy (multicolored dude) and gives a quick greeting
  - morning smiley!
  - good morning mr romy! sorry i cant stay and chat, i gotta deliver this to lemmy!
  - oh thats right, its your brother's birthday today isnt it? well good luck!
- along the way smiley finds random items on the ground and keeps getting distracted
  - woah what a pretty rock! i bet skatey would love this!
  - and a slime ball for stickey! perfect!
  - oh that reminds me, i should write a letter for the mailman! he never seems to get any himself..its a hard life delivering mail! WAIT! I'M DISTRACTED! I NEED TO GET TO CASTLE COURT!
- goes up to a station-like area, and a carriage of some sort arrives with a few other people on it
  - looking for a ride kid?
  - you bet! is this the carriage for castle court?

- sure is!
- smiley pays the fare and gets on
- welcome to castle court! says a big archway
  - now, i remember lemmey saying the wizard council was in a big red tower...ummm...there! that must be it!
  - HEY SMILEY! smiley gets jumpscared by stickey
  - come to see your brother? here i got him a gift too! mind giving it to him for me *holds out a glob of slime*
  - wow thats so nice of you stickey!
  - *slime falls onto the floor*
  - ah well. well see you later smiley
  - you dont want to come with?
  - i DO, but moms making me pull up evil weeds again 😬so ill catch up with you later
  - alrighty, have fun stickey!!
  - i will DESTROY ALL WEEDS
- i wonder what skatey is up to right now..i forgot to ask stickey. i bet theyre doing something epic right now
- cut to skatey at a donut shop or something
  - can i get a toasty roasty traditional slightly undercooked bar donut with glaze and chocolate frosting with rainbow sprinkles and a bottle of milk. please
  - coming right up 😊
- man skateys so cool.....
- also all around castle court there are posters for THE KINGS 90'TH YEAR! celebration. the wizards are all going to be scrambling around preparing for that, maybe there will be some stuff being set up in town
- so smiley gets to the big building, it is indeed red and big, and very tall (very easily spottable from the town entrance just like the color king's castle)
- smiley goes into the building and is met by two guards
  - stop right there! state your business with the wizard council! (theyre very busy you know)
  - hello! im here to deliver a very special package to the Yellow Wizard! (It's his birthday you know)
  - (its his BIRTHDAY?) Wait I know you, you're his little brother arent you?

- That's me! Smiley, pleased to make your acquaintance!
- Smiley! That was it! He talks about you all the time! I'll go tell him you've come to visit, give me one moment.
- Sure thing!
- ...
- (towards other guard) you look like you like shiny things! i found a jewel earlier, here, you can have it!
- oh wow! this is pretty! thanks err..
- smiley!
- smiley, right

- Lemmy pokes head through the door
  - Smiley! What are you doing here ?
  - Hi Lemmy! (goes into wizard hallway)
  - Happy bir- (person shouting orders as they walk by)
  - (loud crash)
  - (more orders and shouting)
  - Oh gosh, sorry Smiley, things are pretty crazy right now, here lets go back to my wizard chambers

- lemmy leads smiley down the hall
  - why the heck is it so crazy around here?
  - the color king's 90th birthday is coming up, its a huge deal. especially for us wizards who have to set everything up..Red wants to make things absolutely perfect as usual
  - do you think the mr color king going to choose a successor this year?
  - i have no idea, the guy loves his secrets..i dont think he's let us know yet
  - he keeps secrets even from you guys?
  - everyone has their secrets, smiley, even the color king
  - i dont have secrets! ...woah is this your room?
  - i can see one in your hand right now, whats the present for?

- they reach Lemmy's chamber
  - oh uh right! ahem, Happy birthday Lemmy! :D
  - Oh man..with all thats been going on i totally forgot about that

- Lemmy opens smileys gift, its a really cool looking orb
  - This..smiley where did you get this??

- I found it! Isn't it pretty! It's like it has all the colors in the world just swirling around like a tiny lava lamp!
- No, uh, seriously Smiley where did you get this? I think that's precisely what this is-
- wuh oh theres a lot of yelling going on outside
- suddenly a giant beam of light wraps bursts through the wall and wraps itself around Lemmy, pulling him to the skies
  - lemmmy!
  - lemmy drops the color orb, smiley catches it
- Smiley runs outside, its chaos! people everywhere are panicking, buildings are being torn down
- smiley looks up and sees the 7 wizards trapped! as well as..the color king!
- suddenly theres an evil laughter from the skies..
  - AH HA HA HA HA! THATS IT! CRY IN FEAR, PEASANTS, COWER BEFORE ME! YOUR COUNCIL, YOUR KING, THEYRE UNDER MY COMMAND NOW!
  - LEMMY!
  - OH LOOK AT THEM..SO SCARED. THEY REALLY ARE NOTHING WITHOUT THEIR KING, HUH? JUST A BUNCH OF ANTS FOLLOWING ORDERS.
- Zap pulls out his communicator
  - Confine the prisoners! Leave the king. I want them to all watch as I take their precious ruler away from them!
  - FAREWELL CASTLE COURT! YOU WERE DULL BEFORE, BUT THATS NOTHING COMPARED TO WHAT YOU'LL BE WITHOUT COLOR BOY HERE.
  - AHAH AHHAHAHAH HAHAAH
- Zap's airship is flying away! People are still panicking!
  - Smileys trying his best to calm people down, but no one is listening
  - some of Zaps GOONS are running around the town now, and are using special devices to drain the color from people, who immediately freeze like statues once without color
  - Smiley runs away and hides even the environment is turning grayscale now
  - Soon everything is quiet.

- The town has come to a standstill, completely grayscale. But Smiley seems to be unaffected
  - the orb is glowing yellow in his hand
  - what the? did you save me little orb?
- Smiley comes out from hiding
  - this is terrible..
- smiley calls out, seeing if anyone is around, but to no luck
- he does find skatey though while walking around!
  - after hugging skatey in relief, the orb touches her back and restores her color
- Skatey!!
  - what..just happened
  - Skatey! Its terrible! The color king got kidnapped, and my brother got kidnapped- ALL the wizards got kidnapped too! And! And-
  - Dude chill, take a trip to snail town and slow down
  - HH. HHH. RIGHT. Sorry! Sorry. This dude with an airship stole all the colors in the area! Can you believe it?!
  - (looks at town) I can actually. It seems like you got spared though, whats up with that
  - I think it was because of this orb. I was going to give it to Lemmy but..well, I used it to revive you, you were a statue just like everyone else
  - Hmm...
  - In any case, let's go find Stickey before we decide what to do. Though, we should probably revive all the townsfolk as well-
  - (puts hand in front of Smiley) I dont think that's the best idea.
  - What do you mean?
  - If we revive all the townsfolk, itll just cause mass panic. And youre the one theyll look for answers, right? Do you really wanna deal with that right now? I dont
  - I guess youre right..I just feel bad leaving them all like that
  - Theyll be fine
  - Well, alright..Stickey said she was going to be pulling up weeds, so lets head over to the gardens
- they both head to the Gardens and find Stickey there, reviving her as well

- SMILEY! SKATEY! YOU'LL NEVER BELIEVE WHAT I JUST SAW! THERE WAS A GIANT AIRSHIP! IT WAS LIKE THE COOLEST THING EVER! DID YOU GUYS SEE IT TOO??
- :O
- ...What? *stickey looks around* WOAHH WHAT THE
- SMILEY WHAT DID YOU DO?????
- THE COLOR KING GOT STOLEN D:
- YOU STOLE THE COLOR KING?!?!?!?!?!?
- AND THE WORLD GOT DRAINED!
- SMILEY WHY?!?!?!?!?!?
- (skatey) Not Smiley. Airship dude
- NOT THE AIRSHIP DUDE
- (smiley) GUYS PLEASE! WE NEED TO DO SOMETHING!
- We're the only ones who can get the Color King back!
- talk about no pressure
- WHY US?
- Smiley holds out color orb
- cause we have this thing, its how i revived you and skatey, it seems like it has the power to stop whatever that evil dude is planning by stealing all this color
- can i see it?
- smiley hands orb to skatey, who touches it to the floor, turning a good portion of it back to its normal color
- yeah looks like this thing is limited
- see? theres less color inside it now.
- We're gonna need to be smart about how we use it then huh
- Luckily thats one of our many strong suits!
- Where'd you find such a nifty orb anyhow?
- I just..found it
- Really?
- Just in the fields, yknow? Oh that reminds me!
- smiley reaches into pocket and pulls out rock
- Here skatey! I found a rock for you!
- Oh thanks
- the group begins to make Adventuring plans
  - so are we really gonna go on a big adventure? with ACTION and DRAMA and BETRAYAL! with a surprise twist ending that no one saw coming!!!!?
  - We have to turn Happyland back to normal! If a big adventure is what it takes, then so be it!
  - We should go get some supplies

- Good idea Skatey! Stickey, you live closest to the Trolley, so i think we should go to your house and gear up
- Yes! Perfect! I shall show you only the BEST hospitalities! Let's go!

PART 2

- the group arrive at Stickey's house to get supplies
- Skatey let Smiley ride on their back while they skateboard there
  - Hey how come Smiley gets a ride?
  - Smileys already been running around all day. He's tired
  - Im not tired! The day is young and so am i!
  - Doesnt matter
  - We should all rest up before we go to find everyone, i vote we leave tomorrow
  - We cant leave tomorrow! Do you know how fast airships can fly?? We'll never catch up to them in time!
  - We'll never catch up to them when we're passed out from exhaustion either
  - It's ok smiley! We can spend today making sure we're EXTRA prepared for anything that comes our way :D
- they arrive at Stickey's house, its a giant freaking mansion surrounded by dark clouds and lightning
  - Looks like the color drain didnt reach all the way out here
- They all eat a meal of some sort and pack their bags full of stuff
- Beddy bye
  - Smiley can't help lying awake with worry
  - Skatey is utterly passed out
  - They also all borrowed pajamas from stickey heeehehe
  - Can't sleep?
  - Mmm..
  - Quite the birthday surprise huh?
  - 🙄
  - Woah dude smiley it's okay
  - What if they all get..explodified....what if we never find the wizards and the king gets his power stolen and the land never knows color ever again-
  - Dude smiley were talking about the COLOR KING here, there's a reason that dudes in charge! This is probably nothing to him
  - And the wizards, they're mega strong too! They're strong enough to learn MAGIC!
  - Whoever this tiny dude thinks they are, they're VERY clearly outnumbered

- Then why hasn't the king come back yet
- Er..well..
- They must've been explodified 🙄🙄🙄
- (Skatey) no one's been explodified, and nothings gonna come out of worrying. It's sleep time
- But-
- Look, alright, this whole kidnapping thing, can you do something about it
- (smiley holds up orb) yes..
- Then don't worry about it.
- But what if they're suffering-
- And if it's a problem you *cant* fix, don't worry about it then either.
- I guess youre right..we just have to do the best we can
- Exactly!
- Goodnight
- smiley holds up orb to moonlight

- Gooooood morning!
  - Things are grabbed and meal is made
  - SO what's the plan here?
  - They look at smiley
  - Er..me?
  - Did you not have a plan??
  - Uh-
  - (Skatey) I think we should go to the observatory
  - Huh?
  - They know everything that goes on in the sky. They can easily track down an airship that passed by here. In fact if they aren't all desaturated, I bet they already are
  - That's genuis Skatey! Good idea!

- Off to the observatory they go!
  - Em..are we just gonna. Walk all the way there?
  - .....Yes
  - Do you know where it is???
  - .....Vaguely.
  - OH I KNOW! The Trolley goes to basically everywhere in Happyland! We can set its route to take us there!

PART 3

- cut to zap pov YAY
  - hands off cape to dude as he walks towards wherever the king is being kept
    - how much time till arrival?
    - a couple more days sir
    - curse this kingdom! why must it be so far away from everything!
    - zap walks away towards dungeon
    - (2nd guard) hes the one who chose to use the airship
    - (1st guard) i think its like..a presentation thing. yknow? you know this guy. he's all about the drama
- cut to lemmmy pov?
- lemmmy wakes up in cell
  - looks around and each wizard has their own cell, they have glass walls except for the back wall
  - starts to panic a little but notices red nextdoor
  - these walls look pretty thin...i bet even a small spell could break them
  - red notices what hes about to do and goes DDD:
    - alright, here goes nothing !
  - lemmmy summons a big ball of lightning magic and throws it towards the front wall, the orb proceeds to bounce off and zap lemmmy
  - lemmmy goes Dx
- zap saw the whole thing and cackles loudly
  - nice try wizards! youll never get past my magic-repelling containers!
  - enjoy your magic while you can..once im able to drain the colors from you all, you'll be no better than dirt beneath my shoes!
- green slams fist on glass angrily shouting something at zap
  - mhm. loud and clear! ill be sure to let your king know when i visit. which is now. im going to go see him now :)
  - have fun in your little rooms! ill tell the guards to bring you all cookies or something~
  - EVIL LAUGHTER
- oh hes giving us cookies! i told you he wasnt all bad!
- what did he mean by..when he's able to drain our colors?
- i dont know, but it means we're safe for now. if he cant touch us, i bet he probably cant touch the king either, which gives us more time to figure out an escape.
- where did this kid even get this kind of glass? one that repells magic, like are you kidding me?

- oh..what even are we without our powers? theres no way we can get out of here..
- well.. im the red wizard, someone who doesnt give up! there has to be a solution to this, we have to do this, for the color king!
- frame of zap walking down hall as cover to next chapter

PART 4

- the trio are on the trolley, the observatory is still pretty far away but its in view
  - its on top of a very very high mountain, with a horribly high staircase going up to it
  - this isnt the zenky trolley btw its an electric one, like one of those things that. what is it called. when it takes you up a mountain but its enclosed idk
- theyre playing dnd or something passing the time somehow
  - thats..10 damage. smiley, you are down
  - AHHH! I DIED!
  - not quite, you have your saving throw-
  - FEAR NOT, I HAVE A HEALING POTION!
  - HORRAY!
  - You used your last potion on the modly cheese you tried to revive, remember?
  - ACK!
- the carriage rocks really hard and spills the game pieces everywhere, they all yell in surprise
  - smiley looks out the window while stickey sets the pieces back
  - ...gosh, we're really high up arent we
  - im trying not to think too hard about it !
  - skatey, youve been to the observatory before havent you?
  - yeah, but i was really little so i dont remember a lot about it. i remember the staircase though
  - staircase?
  - yeah, look.
- they look out the window of the GOLDOLA thats the word
  - see that super straight slope? thats how you get up to the observatory
  - ...oh gosh. seriously? are they in SPACE or something??
  - they're at least above the clouds from what i remember

- theres a loud rumble outside below them
  - messes up the game pieces again much to stickey's dismay
- they look down, and see 3 small air ships with giant vacuum tubes sucking up a ton of color from the land
  - thats not good..
  - AHHHH THEY FOUND US
  - D:
  - Not yet..but theyre going to soon unless we hide. I dont think its a good idea to let them find that orb you have, smiley
  - but how can we hide?? we're like a million feet in the air!
- the gondola shakes around again, making them fall to the floor
- one of the ships is in front of them, noticing people inside, preparing to suck out the color
- ...I have an idea. Though it's..uh- it has a high chance of failure and dooming us all.
- I VOTE WE DONT USE THAT PLAN!
- What is it??
- Drop the orb!
- Are you nuts?!
- the air ship prepares the ZAPPER with a pweeeeeeeee
- DROP IT SMILEY!
  - skatey smacks the orb out of smileys hand, it lands with a thunk on the floor
- the air ship zaps the gondola, sucking out all of its color, including the color from the trio

PART 5

- its dark.
  - smileys outline is laying on the floor unable to move
  - its a black void.
  - cant move, cant feel, cant do anything
  - its empty
  - ...
  - i hope the others are ok
  - ...

- theres a loud rumble outside as the airship flies away
- something dinks against smileys finger
- the world flashes back into view, the airship flying away caused the orb to roll to smileys body and re-color him again
  - smiley gasps as he is revived, he looks over himself to make sure hes ok
  - smiley HATED that
  - trying not to panic over what just happened, he shakily revives skatey and stickey with the orb (again)
- theres not very much color left in it
- .....
- stickey is looking out the window
  - did..did it work? are they gone?
  - geez..they really got the whole area huh
  - ..smiley? are you ok?
- smiley is spaced out but grips his head and shakes it like i do
  - Skatey! Youre a genius! I-I cant believe that actually worked!
  - Wait what happened exactly?
  - The pieces were rolling around everywhere cause the gondola was being shaken, so I figured the orb would hit at least one of us when the airship flew away
  - WHAT! Thats so smart!
  - I know right!
  - I just realized though..even though the orb was touching the floor, the car's color wasnt preserved. Which is weird isnt it? I'm glad i wasn't, cause that wouldve given us away, but still
  - Do you think..the orb ran out of that specific color? Its certainly less rainbow-ey than it used to be
  - If thats the case we should probably hurry up to the observatory before they drain its color too. We wont be able to save it at this rate
  - ...
  - ...
  - we're kind of stuck here though arent we
  - i guess we can spare a little more color to keep this thing going-
  - WAIT! i have an idea!

- [illegible]

- NO no! In..retrospect that probably wasnt the..BEST way to make an entrance
- they all run after the observatory worker guy
- they peek through the door to the main room, expecting to find everyone on the offensive but it seems no one has noticed the worker's panic
  - im telling you! theyre here to take our colors!! we have to get out of here!!
  - (clearly distracted) uh huh that nice
  - IM SERIOUS!!!
  - umm hello?
  - AHHHHHH!!!!!!!
  - AAAAAAAAAHHHH!!!!!!
  - WOULD YOU TWO BE QUIET? we're BUSY! what do you want? dont you know this place is closed!
  - yeah so sorry about that! was just wondering, if you uh, happened to see a big giant airship fly by recently?
  - observatory dude explains that yeah, duh, they saw it. who hasnt
  - did you see which way it went? we're trying to get to it
  - are you kidding? and do what, get killed?
  - we're going to save happyland!
  - yeah. sure man
- blah blah im BORED so theyre gonna convince. or scare the dude into helping them. idk
- but you know the shape of observatories? shaped like i dunno.....say like..a giant canon. :)
- as the airship approaches, theyre gonna get shot out of the observatory and be launched right into the airship
- ---

PART 5

- cut back to wizard pov
- purple is attempting to phase through the wall glass wall
- she manages to get her forearm through it before losing the magic
- the other wizards groan in defeat, shows a zoom out of multiple of them only partially phased through the wall
  - im sorry everyone.. im sure one of us can get it if we keep trying though!
  - cmon lemmys, your turn!

- dont you think its a bit..wreckless for all of us to try phasing? what happens when we all get stuck??
- goodness, id rather not think of this as a “when” situation!
- maybe if we share some energy with Yellow, he can get enough magic to go through
- lemmy is very nervous about the amount of responsibility and expectation on him right now, but hes gonna try for the sake of saving the kingdom and smiley
  - he still has the green ribbon from smileys present, he wraps it around his hand here for encouragement
- alright! ill do it!
  - lemmy makes his hands intangible and the other wizards shoot energy at him which makes it spread farther
- lemmy successfully gets through the wall!
  - i..i did it?
  - (the others) YOU DID IT!!
  - I did it!!!
- lemmy has to sneak around the castle and find zap/the color king
- lemmy knows invisibility maybe?
- lemmy goes down the main hallway and is immediately noticed by a guard there who lemmy gets startled by and proceeds to just knock out
  - oh my stars! im sorry!
  - *i just knocked out a guy*
- lemmy drags the guy onto a nearby chair
- he looks down the big maze of corridors
  - now..which way should i..
- he hears voices down one of the hallways
  - dude..if the boss is draining all the color in the world, why are we still in the clear?
  - maybe he likes us?
  - but we've only talked like..once?
  - i know man that interview was a mess
- lemmy glances back at the guard he knocked out...

- shows up behind the two guards
  - er...um- hello! fellow guards!
- DUDE YOU'RE LIKE A THOUSAND FEET TALL
  - I-
  - heh...you must be a rookie. i can tell. i can tell these things B)
  - you CAN tell those things man
  - yes! well! my name is uhhhhhhhhhhh-.....cloud..ey? CLEARS THROAT have you two seen the er..boss? lately?
  - man i certainly HEARD him
  - yeah that guys laughter goes crazy
  - he was probably talking to the wizards
  - yeah probably, he's around here somewhere! why do you want to know, huh?
  - UH! I HAVE! Important information? To tell him??? Um..what are you guys guarding..exactly? If you dont mind me asking
  - We're guarding a DANGEROUS EXPERIMENTAL SUPERBEAST!
  - Really???
  - Nah we're just slacking off. this job pays peas
  - we can help you find the boss if you want
  - Um..
- Lemmy looks at the huge mess of hallways
  - sure?
  - SWEET lets go, i needed something to do today
  - thanks.....
- --
- the guards lead lemmie down a hallway while making idle chat, maybe lemmie can ask more about zap here
- they do manage to catch up to zap eventually, lemmie gasps and immediately turns invisible, but it is a very limited power so he has to use his time wisely. zap is holding the color king's staff in his hand
  - oh hey boss! cloudy wanted to see..you. hey whered cloudy go?
  - i swear he was right behind us D:
  - CLAPPY!! MAZEY!!! WHAT ARE YOU DOING AWAY FROM YOUR POSTS!!!
  - uh- well cloudy wanted to see you
  - CLOUDY? NO CLOUDY WORKS UNDER ME!
- zap storms towards them
  - I ASSIGNED YOU TWO AND MOONEY TO A TOP PRIORITY MISSION TO GUARD THE WIZARDS. AND HERE YOU ARE- WANDERING AROUND! THE

WIZARDS COULD HAVE ESCAPED BY NOW!!! YOU FOOLS! GO BACK TO YOUR POSTS AT ONCE!

- uh- we- we're sorry sir!
  - YEAH WE'LL HEAD BACK RIGHT NOW
  - tch! zap grasps an orb in his hand that looks really similar to the color orb smiley has (subtle hint that he wanted to drain their colors but couldn't as it would leave them useless to him)
  - clappy and mazey run back down the hall
  - *from far away* dude were we talking to a ghost??
- lemmy drops his invisibility and starts to sneakily follow zap down the hall

PART6

- cut to the trio flying in the sky after being launched
  - they crash through a window and land on some room in the airship
a bunch of guards just stare at them
  - stickey whispers to the others
    - ok guys, in situations like this its best to just! act!! natural!!
    - *CLEARS THROAT* WHEW! THAT WAS CRAZY, HUH GUYS? *turns to crowd* you guys are NOT gonna believe the crazy mission we just went on. I'll have to fill you guys in later, I gotta uhh- gotta inform the boss of some stuff we found! Right? Fellow er- workers? HA! Has anyone seen them around? Lately?
    - GRINS NERVOUSLY
    - i dont think this is working !
    - its fine just dont! say anything!
  - The guards all look at each other, then back at them, immediately raising their weapons towards them
    - RUN!!!!
  - smiley immediately trips and they all fall into a pile
  - The guards approach them menacingly with weapons pointed
    - heh...cmon guys! we can be civil! right? ri-
- smash cut to them locked in a jail like the ones the wizards are in
- ...well that went SWIMMINGLY
  - skatey smashes skateboard against forcefield
  - yeah we aren't getting out of here.
  - No! There HAS to be a way! Things can't end here after we've come this far!

PSSST! they hear

they look over and see purple wizard standing in front of their cell

M-MISS WIZARD! IN FRONT OF ME! HELLO!

Woah! You must be the purple wizard! What- what are you doing here??

Sorry! I didnt mean to startle you you guys are stuck right? do you..need help getting out? only if you want to of course, i hope im not bothering-

PURPLE WIZARD!!!! ITS SUCH AN HONOR TO MEET YOU-

Yes! We have to find that color-stealing guy! I have to save my brother, and I have to save Happyland, but I cant do that when i cant get out of here, we're the only one who can save the color king-

w-woah okay, um

smiley relax

s-sorry. sorry, youre right. One thing at a time!

right, first let me help you guys get out

do- any of you guys know magic by chance? it makes this a lot easier

stickey grins

I KNOW MAGIC! well, just a little but-

- (Zap) many why did i even PUT those wizards where i cant moniter them..right..cause if theyre with the king then they can communicate..but why are they so far apart!!
AGHH!!!
- lemmy continues to follow zap until they reach a huuuuge room
  - it has a giant double door entrance, with lots of decor but everything inside is grayed out
  - in the center of a room is a giant orb, inside it swirls with every color you can imagine
  - the color king is hanging from the ceiling in a cage that is comedically small for their size

zap waves the king's staff tauntingly

- hello KING! How *are* you doing? Enjoying your stay so far hm?
- ...
- YEAH whatever.
- there are some smaller doors circling the room, and one opens and a guard (same guard that got smiley, stickey, and skatey) walks in holding an orb
  - they hold it up to the main orb and it sucks the color out of it
  - lemmy notices 3 eerily familiar looking colors from it.....
