A little about your bylaws

This is the 2019-2021 Colorado PTA (COPTA) Sample Local Unit Bylaws template updated on June 15, 2019, and MUST be used by local units to update or create “new” bylaws. The Colorado PTA Board of Directors works hard to keep the bylaws process as easy as possible. The bylaws template allows your PTA/PTSA to simply add relevant information that pertains to your unit using information from your current bylaws. The blue drafting notes give guidance and items for consideration as you update your bylaws. These are deleted prior to submitting the bylaws to Colorado PTA for final approval.

KEEP THIS PAGE WITH YOUR CURRENT BYLAWS.

- Items with an asterisk are required either by Colorado PTA, National PTA, or the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). They cannot be deleted or amended. Make sure the asterisks (*) remain in the final version of your bylaws.
- Your bylaws have been approved by your membership. Any amendments, to include a change in dues amounts, must be approved by the membership by a two thirds (2/3) vote and 30 days notice of the vote.
- Your PTA/PTSA's budget is approved by your membership, by a majority of the members present and voting, a quorum having been established. Any amendments to the approved budget require a 2/3rds vote of members, present and voting, a quorum having been established.
- It is STRONGLY suggested to elect your officers in February or March. Terms of office correspond with your fiscal year. An early election provides ample opportunity for transition and to attend (taking advantage of early bird pricing) the annual Colorado PTA Convention and National PTA Convention.
- All PTA/PTSAs have a board of directors. In smaller PTA/PTSAs, this may consist of only the elected officers and, perhaps, the principal. In larger PTA/PTSAs, the board may also include committee chairs, advocacy liaison, school accountability committee liaison, teacher/student liaisons, etc. Remember, the board of directors meets and conducts business between general membership meetings. This allows the general membership meeting to run more efficiently, as the board reports action they have taken since the previous meeting.
- Some PTA/PTSAs have an executive committee. This typically consists of the elected officers and, perhaps, the principal. Note: in a smaller PTA/PTSA, this composition is the same as the board of directors, so an executive committee is not needed. The executive committee consists of a smaller number of people, so they can meet on shorter notice to take emergency action as needed.
- An article on electronic meetings has been added. As a reminder, these meetings are considered special meetings for the purposes of notice and quorum.

As always, the Colorado Board of Directors is here to help. If you have any questions, please email bylaws@copta.org or call the Colorado PTA office at 303-420-7820.
