Michael Phelps will attend the Capetown Aquatic Center's grand opening

The $19 million aquatic facility will open Oct. 31

CAPETOWN, Fla. (Oct. 14, 2020) – Capetown has just completed the brand new Capetown Aquatic Center after 10 months of construction. The $19 million facility's grand opening is on Saturday, Oct. 31 and Olympian Michael Phelps is expected to attend.

The Capetown Aquatic Center has two pools. The first is a 50-meter Olympic-sized pool that is suitable for major international competitions. It also features a family pool, which is complete with a splash area for young children and water slides for children over four feet tall. The aquatic center also has a new pool maintenance building and a new administration building.

Opening day is free for Capetown residents and $5 for non-Capetown residents. Normal operating hours and pricing will begin on Nov. 1. The new facility is located on 1256 Cape Blvd. in Capetown and
