

Here's Johnny!

Lots of stuff released overseas in the last few weeks. Everything below has been out in China and now Japan. Should be a month or so before we start seeing these figures coming in. Then again, tariffs may impact the time and price of all figures not yet received in the United States. Hopefully, the people in charge will figure it out soon.

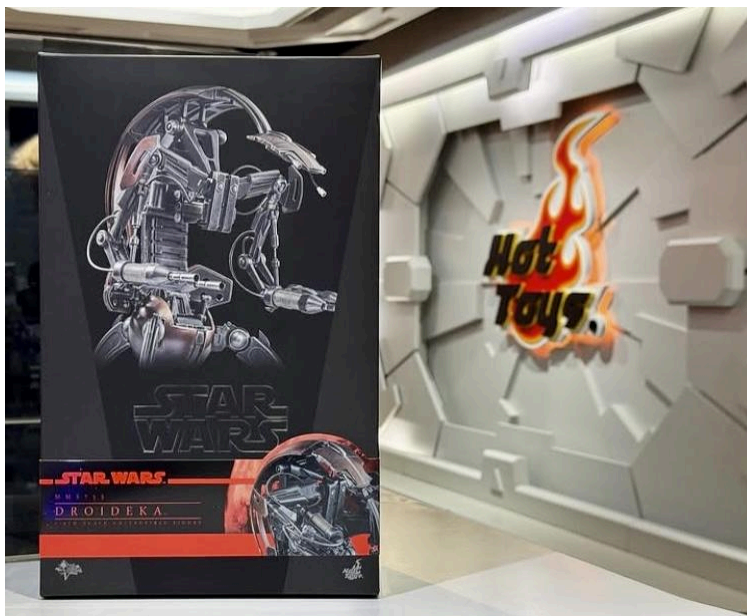

If you have any of these figures preordered without a deposit, please hit me up to confirm your order. A nonrefundable deposit will be taken at that time. Deposits are only refundable if I cancel, or they cancel the figure.

I have some of all the following figures coming in.

Sideshow presents the Bib Fortuna™ Sixth Scale High-End Collectible Figure. This officially licensed Star Wars™ collectible will oversee your shelf — and perhaps a devious deal or two.

“Meega nala kweesta!” - Stitch

Hold on to your coconuts because Stitch has arrived! The upcoming Lilo & Stitch live-action movie brings to life the wildly funny and deeply touching story of a lonely Hawaiian girl and the fugitive alien who helps to mend her broken family. Engineered by the mad scientist Jumba as part of an illegal genetic experiment, Stitch may look deceptively cute, but beneath his big eyes and floppy ears lies the ultimate destructive force - super strong, incredibly smart, and endlessly mischievous. Yet, at his core, all Stitch truly longs for is something simple: a place to belong and a family to call his own.

Sideshow and Hot Toys is delighted to introduce the Stitch Collectible Figure from Disney's newest live-action adventure Lilo & Stitch! Lovingly crafted with movie-accurate detail, the Stitch Collectible Figure features newly developed head and soft body made from textured plush fabric in bright blue, capturing his soft and mischievous charm. His highly articulated body design, including articulated ears and mouth, allows for a wide range of expressive and dynamic poses. The figure also includes seven interchangeable paws, featuring options like roaring and sitting gestures to capture Stitch's playful personality.

Bringing the spirit of the Hawaiian Islands to life, the figure comes with a pair of swimming armbands and a traditional Hawaiian flower lei, complemented by a pair of stylish red-framed sunglasses, perfectly capturing Stitch's laid-back beachside charm. To complete his beach-ready look, a specially designed beach sand-themed figure base is included, letting fans display Stitch in a fun and playful scene inspired by Hawaii's beaches and warm golden sands.

Bring home a little chaos and a lot of heart with this adorable alien, Stitch is ready to crash-land into your display in the most adorable way!

This week we're also going to revisit a feature in the newsletter that we had a while ago, but still relevant and important today. We will be sharing some tips and tricks for collecting and displaying 1/6 figures and vehicles. Hopefully, you can learn something new that may be useful in your collecting. Anyone that would like to provide some content, or have other great ideas to improve the newsletter, please let me know. Thanks.

To Collect and Preserve (Part I)

by SixthScaleJedi

There's no denying it: One-sixth scale collecting is an expensive hobby. Not only do we invest significant sums of our hard-earned money, but we also spend our precious spare time curating our collections. The last thing any of us wants then is to watch our figures degrade and turn to dust on our shelves.

This is why we need to consider how environmental factors affect our figures' materials (plastic, fabric, pleather, and metal, along with paint and glue) when we display or store them. All of these materials are susceptible to damage, but pleather in particular is notorious for cracking and flaking. Sometimes called faux leather or vegan leather, pleather is a cheaper alternative to the real thing. This "plastic leather" consists of a thin layer of PVC (aka vinyl), embossed with a leather grain pattern, that's glued to a fabric backing for strength. This combination of materials is what makes pleather so sensitive to its environment.

So, what factors, besides our fat fingers and clumsiness, can damage these materials? Light, humidity, and temperature are the true enemies of our miniature heroes and villains. Over the next few weeks we'll explore how each factor affects our figures and, more importantly, how to mitigate their harmful effects. It's up to us to keep our heroes in fighting shape!

Looking forward to Part 2! Thanks for the information.

This week we will be featuring my buddy Autonomous Builds. He custom printed and painted my Johnny 5 1/6 scale figure. If you are interested in one, let me know.

Collector's Corner

Name, Location

Autonomous Builds, Whidbey Island, WA

What was your first Hot Toy that you got for your collection and why did you choose it?

Marty Mcfly from the first Back to the Future movie, which has always been my favorite film. I can't remember how many times I have re-watched that movie over all these years.

What is your most favorite figure in your collection and why do you love it so much?

I don't have a favorite figure at all, but like certain versions of a character which are hard to switch out with another version.

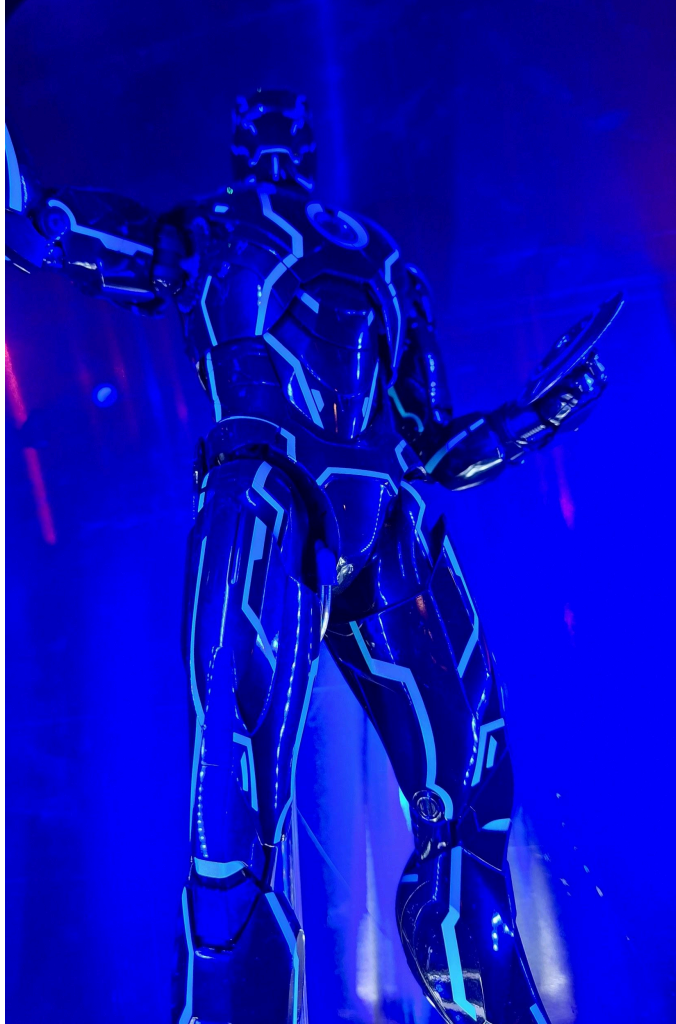

What is the most recent addition to your collection and why did you choose it?

The most recent addition to my collection is the S-Hero Iron Monarch which comes from the What if.. Dr.Doom and Iron man swapped places, so it is kind of having 2 character's in 1.

What is the most valuable $$$ figure in your collection?

The most valuable figure I must own is the 1/6 battle damaged Robocop with a price tag of $400-$500. It is the only Hot Toys figure ever made to have an "unmasked " Alex Murphy head sculpt once transformed into Robocop.

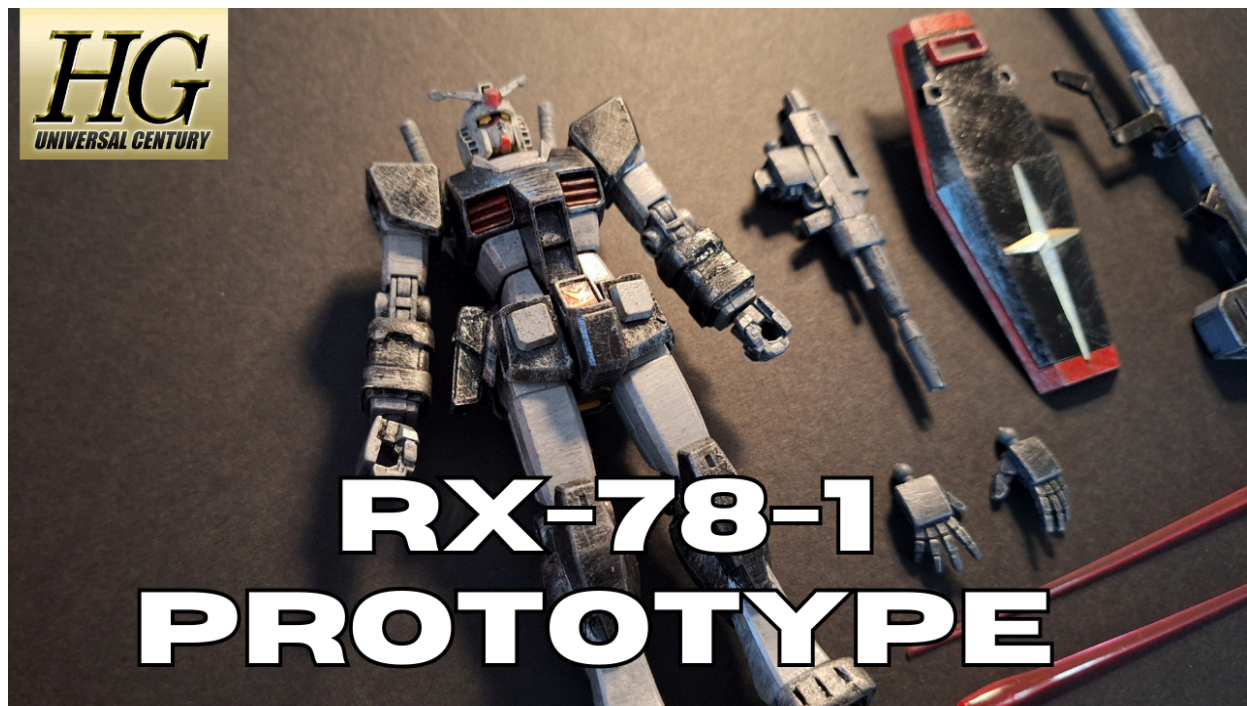

How many figures are in your collection and do you have tips for new collectors on building their collections?

I have around 40 figures in my collection, however 80% of them are Iron Man figures. Whoever is building their collections should never buy a figure just because their friend next door has one.

What's the best advice you can give to someone getting into sixth scale collecting?

For anyone getting into sixth scale collecting, don't always go for the pricey ones, and careful where you buy them from and their condition.

Do you have any posing or display tips?

A lot of my figures are posed without the stands since they balance out pretty well, but are essential when the ankle joints are too loose, so if you have a shelf for your figure, use the Stand.

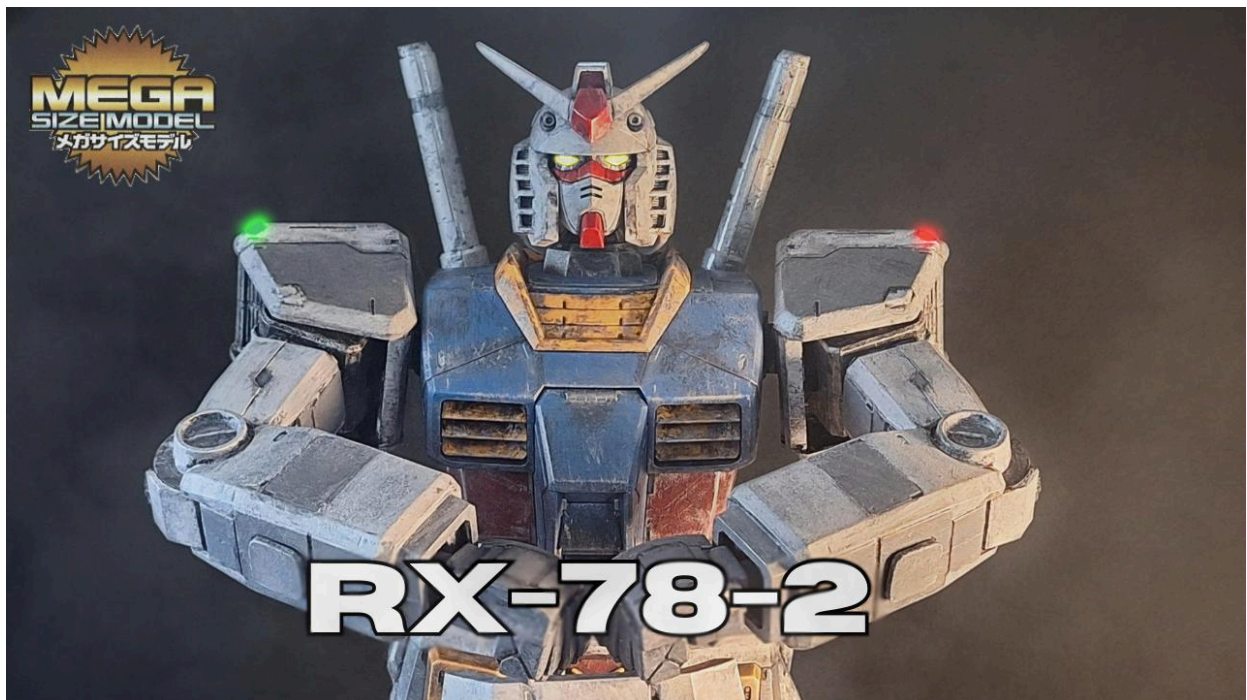

Do you have a favorite hobby to do in your free time?

I have always liked Gunpla and building from scratch, I even started a youtube channel called "Autonomous Builds" to post some of my builds and I am always looking for a way to improve and make each model unique. I have even scratch built over the course of 3 months a fully functional Golden Gun from the "The Man With The Golden Gun" Film.

What is the best deal you ever got on a figure and what was it

I believe I got the Iron Legion suit for almost $150 at an auction on Ebay.

What figure in your opinion is underrated and why do you think it wasn't well received?

I think the mk 43 is underrated since it's a repaint of the mk 42 which is why many can find it boring, but probably only gets attention due to its connection to the Hulkbuster in Age of Ultron.

Who's your favorite authorized Sideshow Collectibles dealer in Chandler, Arizona?

Martini's Miscellania & Collectibles is one of the most trusted and honest sellers I could have met, he is clear in communication and proves his effort through any product you may order from him, 100% recommend for any new buyers.

Poor Suzie got her Yellow Fever Vaccine for the trip to Zambia and was sick as a dog for a few days. She should be fine though. For everyone that has donated already, a great big thank you. She still needs some more help and every dollar makes a difference. Thanks again and you guys and gals are awesome. Here's the info below.

I'm hoping some of you are able to support my wife as she raises some money to travel to Zambia with her church in July. She will be going there with a small group to help feed the orphans in the slums of Zambia and also assist with survivors of sex trafficking. Any amount will help. It all adds up. Thank you in advance and here is the link to donate.

Preorders

I am no longer taking any new preorders. Any and all future preorders will require a non refundable $50 deposit. Unfortunately, recently I've had too many issues with cancellations and nonpayment.

The only exception would be to pay in full when you order. Paying in full at the time of preorder always gets you free shipping when the item arrives.

Special Orders

If you need a specific figure ordered, there is a $50 nonrefundable deposit. It will go towards the price of the figure. Deposits are only refundable if I cancel, or they cancel the figure.

I will notify you when I find out the shipping date. If full payment is not made when I receive your item, your deposit may be forfeited. If the item is more than $300 it is a 25% deposit.

Payment

Payments can be sent through Paypal (Friends & Family) or Zelle. I also accept Paypay (Goods & Services) but please add the fees. There are few fee calculators online.

480-688-7543 for Zelle or PayPal or @chandlerflowers11 on Paypal. Thank you.

Shipping

I only ship UPS ground with full insurance coverage. All shipping will be a flat rate of $20. Oversized or extra heavy figures will have additional fees added. If you have a shipping carrier preference, please let me know. Shipping will be in the original brown shipper box. Double boxing is available for $10 extra. I will no longer be shipping to any new international customers for the time being.

Tariffs

Tariffs have been unfortunately and forcefully implemented recently. Pricing will reflect any tariffs that are in effect when the item arrives from overseas.

Returns and Issues

I do accept returns within 30 days in the same condition purchased. All issues will also be taken care of by Sideshow through me.

Policy Changes

Policies may change at any time. Like now! Now it's different. How do you like that? Bam! Now I just changed them back! They are the same as above now. Crazy!
