

Foundations of Art I

Course Description: This course is an introductory course that focuses on the principles and elements of design within composition. Students will be exposed to various drawing and sculpting materials. Students will also critique their work and the work of others in order to grow as an artist. Students maintain a digital portfolio of their work throughout the course.

Topic	Learning Outcomes The student will be able to:
Unit 1: Drawing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify and apply the principles and elements of design through a variety of drawing materials.• Understand the importance of line.• Understand and apply various shading techniques: smooth blending, hatching, cross hatching, stipple, scumbling• Develop compositions...• Strengthen hand eye coordination through observation drawing, contour line drawing, modified contour line drawing.