

TIDE Retreat Summer 2024: Our Identity and Responsibility as a Hispanic Serving Institution

Tuesday, July 23
10:00am- 3:30pm
Building E Room 121

Objectives:

By the end of the retreat, participants will be able to

- Define what it means to be a Hispanic Serving Institution, and explain key components of “servingness” according to scholarship on HSIs.
- Determine how your role at ECC fits within a servingness framework of being an HSI.
- Identify two individual or group practices that either you currently do or that you can adopt that support our identity as an HSI

10:00 Welcome

Liddy Hope and Tyler Roeger

10:30 What it Means to Be a Hispanic Serving Institution

Cathy Mayer

11:00 Understanding Ethnicity and Culture: Definitions and Foundational Knowledge

Maggie Im and Marlen Ruiz

11:30 HSI Servingness Organizational Framework

Kristina C. Alcozer Garcia

12:30 Lunch (lunch provided)

1:00 Applying the Educational Framework

Liddy Hope and Tyler Roeger

3:00 Next Steps

3:30 Conclude