

Whitney Bauer is an experienced project management and operations leader who excels at driving productivity, innovation, and operational excellence. She is skilled in process implementation, team building, and relationship management. Whitney ensures all stakeholders—internal teams, clients, and partners—feel supported throughout a project's lifecycle. With a keen eye on deadlines and budgets, she maintains a calm and positive atmosphere while maintaining effective workflows.