

Subject Line: Me as your personal mentor?

Content:

What about having me as your personal mentor for the rest of your life?

This is what it could look like:

- You 3x your income
- Drop 2 dress sizes
- Your children are endlessly proud of you
- You have more “you” time
- Have the perfect marriage

This would cost tens of thousands of dollars which I know is unrealistic.

So what about $10 instead?
