{st:Paul Stookey & Peter Yarrow}

[Verse 1]

C Bm C D

Oh, once I had a little dog, his color it was brown,

C Bm C D

I taught him how to whistle, to sing and dance and run.

G Em Bm G Em

His legs they were fourteen yards long, his ears so very wide,

G Em Bm C D

Around the world in half a day, upon him I could ride.

[Chorus]

G C D Em C D

Sing tarry-o day, Sing Autumn to May.

[Verse 2]

C Bm C D

Oh, once I had a little frog, he wore a vest of red,

C Bm C D

He leaned upon a silver cane, a top hat on his head.

G Em Bm G Em

He'd speak of far off places, of things to see and do,

G Em Bm C D

And all the kings and queens he'd met, while sailing in a shoe.

[Chorus]

G C D Em C D

Sing tarry-o day, Sing Autumn to May.

[Verse 3]

C Bm C D

Oh, once I had a flock of sheep, they grazed upon a feather.

C Bm C D

I'd keep them in a music box from wind and rainy weather.

G Em Bm G Em

And every day the sun would shine, they'd fly all through the town

G Em Bm C D

To bring me back some golden rings, and candy by the pound.

[Chorus]

G C D Em C D

Sing tarry-o day, Sing Autumn to May.

[Verse 4]

C Bm C D

Oh, once I had a downy swan, she was so very frail,

C Bm C D

She sat upon an oyster shell, and hatched me out a snail.

G Em Bm G Em

The snail it changed into a bird, the bird to butterfly,

G Em Bm C D

And he who tells a bigger tale would have to tell a lie.

[Chorus]

G C D Em C D

Sing tarry-o day, Sing Autumn to May.
