

It had been several months since Ariadne and Kedrian had moved into the manor, sharing a room together as Kedrian was very clingy when it came to Ariadne. Not that she minded~ he was nervous around the other residents due to a mixture of shyness and unfamiliarity. But none of that mattered right now because today was Ariadne's weekly massage~

Lighting scented candles, preparing some hot towels, and setting some oils on the dresser. He went all out on his massages, especially for Ariadne who was currently laying face down on her web above him. Waiting for her sweet drow to tend to her with a soft smile, and wearing nothing but a set of deep purple silken underwear accented with light purple flowers as she hummed softly to herself. She rarely brought out her human form, seeing it as a very personal thing. But she loved surprising her little drow~

"Are you almost ready darling~? Mama is awfully tired after today and could use your sweet touch~"

"Almost ready, just o...one moment please"

He responded shyly as he continued his preparations. Hearing Ariadne's soft chuckling from above already making him blush bright red. He had prepared a special oil for the special occasion of massaging her humanoid form. An oil specially designed for extra softness and comfort. As well as being edible in case Ariadne got into one of her moods~ but as he finished he rolled up his sleeves and looked up at her with a shy smile.

"OK Ari, I'm ready"

She cooed softly as she reached up to loosen one of her strings, causing the web to slowly descend until she was right at eye level in spite of her laying down. Her eight eyes scanning him over, staring at every single curve of his body and biting her lip. She loved watching her darling at work~

"Then climb on up darling~ I'm more than ready for you~"

He was a blushy mess as he watched her lower the web a bit further, allowing him to climb onto the web. He was mostly silent as he straddled her large back, too focused on not losing himself to his desires to remember to speak. He began by grabbing some of the oils and gently massaging her shoulders, feeling her coo softly underneath him as he melted her tension away.

"So professional darling~ or are you so mesmerized you forgot to speak~"

"no im just uh... concentrating, youve been hard at work so i want to help you relax"

He said quickly in response, trying to hide the obvious fact that she was right as he finished up with her shoulders. Applying hot towels to them to relax her muscles as he began massaging more oils into her back, sliding down her body and sitting on her soft ass so he had room. His blush increasing in intensity when his hands slipped beneath her bra strap for a brief moment to apply the oils. A soft chuckle coming from below him as he worked.

"Mmmmm~ did my sweet darling do something special today~? Your touch feels even more wonderful than usual~"

"Thank you, I'm just taking extra care of you tonight"

He said, another gentle lie as he began applying pressure to her lower back. Working the knots out as she moaned softly beneath him. Her appreciation audible in her voice as he moved himself to sit on her legs, but not before setting a few more hot towels on her back. Yet as he sat there staring at her soft ass beneath those alluring panties he had to pause. Her hypnotic curves drawing him in as he simply grabbed another hot towel and laid it on her ass. He knew that if he began touching her rear Ariadnes teasing might make it difficult to move on, deciding to come back later as a result.

"Mmmmmm~ what's the matter darling~ can't handle momma's curves~?"

She said with a soft chuckle as he responded. Swiftly moving on to her legs to try and distract her.

"I'll get to it. . . Just uhh enjoy the massage"

He says as he continues to massage her legs. Desperately trying to stay focused through her soft moans and her womanly scent as he finished up on her legs before finally sitting down on the web and staring at her feet. Shiny with sweat and musky. It was impossible to look away as he got more massage oils and began gently running his hands along her perfect sole. Taking deep breaths of her intoxicating musk as her moans continued to echo from in front of him. Eventually leading to him simply stopping and staring at her feet, now shiny with a mix of massage oils and sweat. She looked back to see his bright red blush as he continued to stare. Chuckling softly before speaking.

"You can do more than massage if you want darling~"

He was snapped out of his daze for just a moment as he looked up at her face. Seeing that teasing smirk on her lips causing him to finally start getting erect. A soft bulge forming in his pants that he desperately hoped she couldn't see. But his attention quickly shifted from her grin back to her feet, staring longingly at them as he unconsciously started moving closer. Leaning in and taking a deep breath of that intoxicating musk before gently kissing her foot.

"Mmmmm~ good boy~"

She said softly before pushing her foot into his face, at which point he lost all control. He began desperately kissing and licking her feet, tasting her sweaty soles as her womanly musk drowned his senses. Subtly trying to grind on Ariadne's web as he pressed his tongue between each of her toes, her moaning spurring him on as he was broken by her. She noticed his grinding immediately, the shaking of her web known well to her.

"Don't forget momma's ass darling~ you still haven't finished your massage~"

He continued to worship her feet for several moments before her words finally snapped him out of his daze. Looking up at her and wordlessly moving back up her body, too much drunk to speak as he sat on her thighs. He once again found himself staring at her perfect curves. Nearly drooling as he forced himself to get more oils, letting his hands sink into the softness of her rear as she moaned softly once more. Her panties the only thing preventing him from breaking on the spot as he oiled up her rear. Each moan from below making it harder and harder to focus.

"Don't be shy darling~ I want you to be having fun too~"

"but . . . it's not about me, you've worked hard"

He said as he subconsciously pulled on her rear. Unable to contain himself fully in spite of his protests.

"But I love seeing you so desperate to enjoy yourself darling~"

She said teasingly as he went hot purple, burning up completely under her gaze as she softly cooed beneath him. His gaze lowering back to her perfect ass as she began to speak once more.

"Go right ahead dar-"

Before she could even finish he had pounced on her softness. Kissing her sweat soaked panties desperately. His own lust fully uncontrollable as he made out with the fabric. Yet as he did he suddenly felt her legs wrap around his body, and before he knew it they were completely flipped over. Her heavy ass now fully smothering his face as she giggled softly. Grinding against his face for a moment before speaking.

"So eager to get a taste of momma's ass~ very well then~ I'm going to give you a front row seat~"

She says as she gets up just enough to slip off her panties before slamming down on his face once more, moaning softly as a muffled whimper was barely heard beneath her plush ass.

"Hope you're prepared darling~ because you and I are going to have a very long night ahead of us~"
