

O'BRIEN, Nancy J.

Nancy J. O'Brien, 78, of Florida, recently moving back to Enfield, passed peacefully from this life on Sunday (February 26, 2012) at her home surrounded by her loving family after a courageous 11 year battle with cancer. The beloved wife of the late William J. O'Brien, she was born in Hartford on May 19, 1933, to the late John and Sylvia Stone.

Nancy retired from the former Connecticut Bank and Trust where she worked in EFT Operations. She was an avid reader and card player. Nancy was deeply loved and will always be missed by her children, William O'Brien, of Enfield, Sharon O'Brien and her significant other, Philip Bosse, of South Windsor, Kim O'Brien, of Enfield, and Lynn Colbert and her husband, Steve, of Enfield. Her greatest joy in life and greatest source of strength during her illness came from the "lights of her life", her beloved grandchildren, Kayla, Nicholas, Amanda and Jake. She also leaves her brother, John Stone and his wife, Andra, of MA; her sisters, Virginia Allen of FL, and Phyllis Emmons, of Glastonbury; and her canine companion, Coco. Nancy was predeceased by her son, Michael; her grandson Cody; and her brother, William. Nancy's family would like to thank her friends for their care and support, and they extend special thanks to Nancy Pisieczko, R.N. for her tremendous help and compassion.

Relatives and friends may gather at Leete-Stevens Enfield Chapels, 61 South Road, Enfield, on Saturday, March 3, 2012, for visitation from 3-6 p.m. A service celebrating Nancy's life will be held at 6 p.m. following the calling hours. Donations in Nancy's memory may be made to the American Cancer Society 825 Brook Street, I-91 Tech Center, Rocky Hill, CT 06067-3045. To leave an online message of sympathy or for directions please visit www.leetestevens.com.