

Resources to Support Access to Food

NYC provides emergency food assistance through food pantries (groceries) and community kitchens (hot meals). Below are resources NYCPS' Office of Family and Community Empowerment (FACE) has gathered to help families find and locate food assistance:

- The Food Pantries Connection Map
- ACCESS NYC for food locations and applying for SNAP
- The Community Food Connection
- Food Bank For New York City and Citymeals On Wheels for broader support with eligibility available to everyone regardless of immigration status or income
- Plentiful this app will help you to find the nearest food pantry and make a reservation.
- The Department of Youth and Community Development
- OTDA will keep you up to date on Government Food Benefits
- Food Help NYC
- CityHarvest.org
- Hunger Free America
- NY Common Pantry List
- Home - Brighter Bites
- Call 311

The following resources were shared by partners and are organized geographically. You can access a comprehensive directory here.
