

SL: We need to talk Mark...

Pretext: What's up, so I'm reaching out because if I don't tell you this, I'd be pretty wrong, but I have the medicine to fix all of the issues that your business has

Now listen, Mark

I'd hate to give you something you don't need, so I would like to know some things about the business, before we move forward, like:

- What position is the company in right now, and if you do, why do you want to get out of it, and have you tried solving it?
- What are the desires you want for the business, and what you've tried to get there
- And what's stopping you from reaching this dream state? Like reaching your goals, and solving all the issues that really bother you

I think you'll like this part but, I'm a true businessman, and I only eat what I kill, so If I fail to live up to my offer happen one month, you'll get your money back asap

Does this look like it would benefit you mark? If so, I would like to get on a call with you whenever you're free so we can get into deeper details.

But, if you aren't interested Mark, no worries!

Take care,

Charles
