

So the skits went really well today: A Day German 2 did a great job. Unfortunately, I won't be in class tomorrow, but I want you to perform the skits anyway, record them with your cell phone(s), and make the video available to me any manner you can. Emailing me the video as an attachment won't work - use a cloud network like google drive. And use my email: nkandah@wcpss.net.

Maybe one person would be willing to videograph all the skits and send me the link.

I look forward to seeing them this weekend!

Homework: for A Day - Friday February 2, 2018:

Homework: for B Day - Monday, February 5, 2018

Same as above - to be begun AFTER you videotape your skits tomorrow.
