Term Limits for Directors and Term Length for Executive Committee Members

POLICY

This policy outlines the term limits for Directors and Executive Committee Members of the National Foster Parent Association to ensure compliance with the organization's bylaws and promote effective governance.

Term Limits for Directors

1. Term Length
    - Directors shall serve two years from one annual organizational meeting to the next.
2. Consecutive Terms
    - Directors shall have a maximum of three (3) consecutive two (2) year terms.
3. Reapplication
    - After serving the maximum number of consecutive terms, a director must leave the Board of Directors for at least one year before being eligible to reapply for a position as a director.

Term Length for Officers

1. Term Length
    - The term of office for elected officers shall be two years from one annual organizational meeting to the next.
2. Vacancies
    - Unless an officer dies, resigns, or is removed, they shall serve their full term.

PROCEDURE

Officers and directors shall be elected by the Policies and Procedures established in this document. In the event of a vacancy or succession, the following procedures shall be followed.

1. In the event of a Vacancy

- If an officer position becomes vacant due to death, resignation, or removal, the Board shall appoint a replacement to serve until the next annual organization meeting.

2. Special Elections
    - If more than one year remains in the term, a special election may be held to fill the vacant position for the remainder of the term, following the same voting process as the regular election.
