

Long Island College and University Disability Services Resource Guide

 Students must self-identify to the Disability Services Office and submit required documentation for appropriate services to be determined

Institution	Contact Information	Services & Supports Available	Specialty Programs
Adelphi University	http://www.adelphi.edu Adelphi University One South Ave/ P.O. Box 701 Garden City, NY 11530 Student Access Office Post Hall, First Floor 516-877-3145 sao@adelphi.edu	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Tutoring Services available through the Tutoring Center • Counseling provided through the university counseling services • Referral to campus Academic Advisors • Assistive Technology Labs available	Bridges to Adelphi Program This program offers individualized comprehensive academic, social and vocational services that are designed to make that transition easier. This fee-based program offers regularly scheduled meetings to help with executive functioning and time management issues, problem-solving skills, and a wide variety of social opportunities. Phone: 516-877-4181 Email: bridges@adelphi.edu Learning Resource Program This program provides support services to students with learning disabilities. The mission of the program is to encourage independence, assist students in realizing their academic potential, and facilitate the elimination of barriers. The program focuses on an individualized approach to each student. Students may be considered for admission to the program whether or not they meet the traditional criteria for enrollment in the university. This is a fee based program. Phone: 516-877-4710 Email: lrp@adelphi.edu

Five Towns College	http://www.ftc.edu Five Towns College 305 North Service Road Dix Hills, NY 11746-5871 Student Success Center Located in Rooms 104 & 106 along with the Academic Support Center	• Intake/ Identification of reasonable accommodations needed to set up individual accommodation plan • Tutoring services located within the Student Success Center • Counseling Services available within Student Success Center and referrals can be made to outside agencies if needed	Student Success Center The Student Success Center is that area of the College dedicated to supporting students' academic experiences. To achieve that, there are several offices responsible for identifying, assisting, referring and/or providing educational support to any student desirous of their services. Student Access Office & Disability Services Five Towns College is committed to leveling the playing field for students with a documented disability by providing reasonable accommodations and services. Our services and accommodations are designed to meet the educational needs of our enrolled students as well as help them develop the skills they will need during and after their FTC journey. Overall, assisting students to be self-advocates and more independent.
Hofstra University	http://www.hofstra.edu Hofstra University 1000 Fulton Ave Hempstead, NY 11549	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services	Program for Academic Learning Skills (PALS) The PALS program is a fee based program designed to assist students with learning disabilities and

	Student Access Services: Located: 107A Mack Student Center Director: Julie Yindra 516-463-4999 julie.yindra@hofstra.edu	• Tutoring services available through the tutoring lab • Counseling services available on campus • Disability Services works with Academic Advisement	ADD/ADHD. Entry is determined by application and interview at the time of admission to Hofstra. Academic Coaching Program Students who are registered with Student Access Services (SAS) can enroll in Academic Coaching, a fee based program designed to assist participants in developing their academic and study skills. This program is for students who might need additional support inside and outside of the classroom through one-on-one meetings with a qualified learning specialist in the SAS office.
Long Island University (LIU)	http://www.liu.edu LIU Post 720 Northern Blvd Brookville, NY 11548 Learning Support Center Disability Support Services Post Hall, Lower Level, East Wing post-learningssupport@liu.edu	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of the process to arrange services • Advocacy and coordination of services to assist in arranging accommodations • Peer tutoring in the Learning Support Center • Additional tutoring available through academic departments • Counseling available through Center for Healthy Living • Coordination with Academic Advisors	Academic Resource Program (A.R.P) A fee based program designed for students with learning disabilities, ADHD and Autism. Students need to be accepted into the university first and then can apply to the program. An interview is then required. Program services include: • Weekly sessions with trained Learning Assistants who provide instruction in content, time management, organization, note taking and study skills • Computer lab with assistive technology • Testing and other reasonable accommodations

Molloy College	http://www.molloy.edu Molloy College 1000 Hempstead Ave Rockville Centre, NY 11570 Disability Services Coordinator DSS/STEEP Cari Rose-Tomo 516-323-3315 crosetomo@molloy.edu Associate Coordinator, DSS/STEEP Kathy Brunet 516-323-3316 kbrunet@molloy.edu	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Tutoring services provided at disability services • Counseling Services through Campus Ministries • Will make student referral/connections for Academic Advisement	Disability Support Services/ Success Through Expanded Education Program Disability Support Services/Success Through Expanded Education Program (DSS/STEEP) at Molloy College strives to provide access to an equal educational experience for qualified students with documented disabilities, while ensuring that the integrity of all college standards and requirements is maintained. In support of the College's commitment to transformative education, DSS/STEEP aspires to educate the Molloy community so as to increase awareness, knowledge, and integration of those with disabilities.
Nassau Community College	http://www.ncc.edu Nassau Community College 1 Education Dr Garden City, NY 11530 Center for Students with Disabilities 516-572-7241	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Tutoring services provided at disability services • Counseling Services through Disability Services	The Achilles Project The Achilles Project is designed to improve the self-esteem, academic performance, and behavior of 2e Students and to help define their career direction. It will benefit participants— both in their academic performance, and transition to the workplace and society. By developing

	CSDOffice@ncc.edu	• Academic Advisement available through Disability Services, referral for additional supports • Priority registration available	these students' previously overlooked talents, the program serves as a societal resource for scientific/technological advancement and cultural enrichment.
New York Institute of Technology (NYIT)	http://www.nyit.edu NYIT Northern Blvd P.O. Box 8000 Old Westbury, NY 11568	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Assistance with coordinating tutoring services on campus • Counseling available through the Counseling and Wellness Center • Will coordinate and consult with academic advisors on campus • Tutoring services available through the Learning Center
St. Joseph's College	http://www.sjcny.edu/long-island St. Joseph's College 155 West Roe Blvd Patchogue, NY 11772 Office of Student Accessibility Services O'Connor Hall, Room N304 Director: Kathleen	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Peer Tutoring Services available through Disability Services • Academic Advisement through Disability Services	Office for Student Accessibility Services All services are included with tuition. Students register each semester for accommodation and work with the coordinator regarding which accommodation. It is up to the students to inform the professors of accommodations. There is also a separate testing center where students

	Blumenthal 631-687-1426 kblumenthal@sjcny.edu	• Workshops available • Socialization Activities and events • Internships for Career Readiness	can make an appointment to take the test with them. Tutoring service are also available.
SUNY Farmingdale	http://www.farmingdale.edu SUNY Farmingdale 2350 Broadhollow Road Farmingdale, NY 11735 Disability Services Center Roosevelt Hall, Room 150/151 934-420-5174 dsc@farmingdale.edu	• Intake and determination of reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Counseling services through Disability Services; personal counseling, self-advocacy issues, disability issues, referrals to community agencies • Academic Advisement available within Disability Services • Assistive technology information • Workshops such as: Orientation Boot Camp • Career Readiness Activities
SUNY Old Westbury	http://www.oldwestbury.edu SUNY Old Westbury 223 Store Hill Road Old Westbury, NY 11568 Office of Services for Students with Disabilities	• Intake meeting to determine reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Counseling services available through the Counseling and

	Academic Building, Room 2065 Stacey Defelice, Director 516-876-3009 defelices@oldwestbury.edu	Psychological Wellness Center • Disability Awareness Programs on Campus • Academic Success workshops • Referrals to other agencies or community resources
Stony Brook University	http://www.stonybrook.edu Stony Brook University 100 Nichols Rd Stony Brook, NY 11794 Student Accessibility Support Center Stony Brook Union Suite 107 631-632-6748 sasc@stonybrook.edu	• Intake meeting to determine reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange services • Academic Advisement at least twice a year provided through Student Accessibility Support Center • Academic Success tutoring services with trained tutors • Academic Concerns counseling services • Referrals for additional campus resources	Educational Opportunity Program & Advancement on Individual Merit (EOP/AIM) Pre-Freshman Summer Academy requires application and acceptance into the program. Program includes Tutorial Services, Personal Counseling & Academic Advising, Workshops & Conferences, Computer Based Instruction & Tutorial
Suffolk Community College	http://www.sunysuffolk.edu Suffolk Community College Ammerman Campus 533 College Rd Selden, NY 11784 Michael J. Grant Campus 1001 Crooked Hill Rd Brentwood, NY 11717	• Accommodations can be requested for student placement tests • Intake meeting to determine reasonable accommodations and review of process to arrange for services • Peer tutoring and small groups available through various campus centers

	Eastern Campus 121 Speonk-Riverhead Rd Riverhead, NY 11901	• Mental Health Counseling available through the counseling office
--	--	--	--