Kata is now non-style specific - athletes can choose Kata from other styles.

- It cannot repeat consecutively until the medal rounds. You can repeat in the medal round (final or third-place play-off)
- Karate-ka require a minimum of two Kata. At least ABAB… including this sequence, if the athlete is in the final.
- In the medal round, Kata must be from the Intermediate division listed above.
- Development grade Kata can also be used in the Intermediate division.
- Flags are used for this division, and athletes compete two at a time but one at a time in the final.

  The exception is with a round-robin of three, and there is no final, so each round is two competitors at a time.
