

Ramadan is over !!!!!1111!11

Ramadan Rhyme

What is the Ramadan Rhyme challenge?

- Simply write a poem about Ramadan or something you love to do during Ramadan!
- Scroll down (below this line ———— X ————) and write your name, grade level and show us your skills!
- Make sure you change the colour of your poem

Rules:

- Be kind and respectful

- No editing someone else's poetry
- Staff, students, family members are all welcome to participate.
- This is your creative expression, it can be as long or short as you want.
- Let the creative juices flow and have a great time!

You might also like...

- Ramadan Book List suggestions: <https://padlet.com/rhossam/ygal2f7wprhbt82e>
- Ramadan Activity Picker: https://www.classtools.net/random-name-picker/37_Cc5GPF

Example: Ms. Reem - Staff (ES Librarian)

Silver moon, Silver moon

You change so soon

You're never the same in the sky

When I'm in bed, hope fills my head

I pray that my heart won't pass by

=====

Hassan and Nour Aboomira - (KG - PreK4)

In Ramadan, we say Ramadan Kareem.

This isn't just a greeting word;

Rather, it is a whole theme.

It means Ramadan is the month of generosity once the moon is observed.

It isn't just about fasting.

It is about so much more.

It is about showing kindness that should be everlasting.

It is about showing love to the rich and the poor.

Ramadan teaches us how to have so many good traits,

Even if it just means sharing a plate of dates.

El Feki Nour - Grade 2B

Ramadan is a special month

All the Muslim people should fast and forgive

Muhammad the Prophet sent us down the Quran

A perfect month to reflect and pray

Do your best to have your heart filled with peace

And protect and help the people in need

Nothing is more important than Allah's forgiveness.