

Name _____

12 Angry Men In-Class Essay

Gradebook Grade

A

_____ Student sat in class and diligently worked on writing the best essay they could in the time provided.

_____ Student demonstrated an emerging understanding of connecting THEME/MESSAGE to TECHNIQUE/DEVICE in more than one instance (ie-used classwork chart to attempt to write A developed essay.)

B

_____ Student sat in class and diligently worked on writing the best essay they could in the time provided.

_____ Student demonstrated an emerging understanding of connecting THEME/MESSAGE to TECHNIQUE/DEVICE at least once but no more than that.

C

_____ Student sat in class and diligently worked on writing the best essay they could in the time provided.

_____ Student demonstrated no understanding of the connection between THEME and technique.

Inc/E

_____ Not complete enough for me to assess; needs to come in during GP one day next week and finish.

Essay Grade

If this were a real grade, this is the grade that would be in the gradebook. This is NOT in the gradebook, but your quarter exam essays will be similar to this essay. All exams also include a rubric that we will go over before quarter exams start.

A	B	C	D	E
Strong essay writing skills.	Good essay writing skills.	Beginning level essay skills. Essay a bit disorganized and underdeveloped.	Emerging understanding of how to write an essay.	Does not understand how to write an essay.