

Transition Day – Questions & Answers

Who should attend Transition Day on Monday, August 25th?

- All new scholars who are new to Imagine Lincoln PCS
 - All 6th grade scholars entering middle school

Is Monday, August 25th a full day of school?

No. Transition Day is a half day of school for scholars. Dismissal will begin at 12:05 pm, and scholars are expected to be picked up no later than 12:30 pm.

- Any scholar who remains on school grounds after 12:30 pm will be sent to after-care, and families will be charged a fee.
 - Families should sign up for the drop-in after-care rate if needed.

Are scholars required to wear uniforms?

Yes. Imagine Lincoln PCS is a uniform school. Unless otherwise notified, scholars are required to be in full uniform each day, including Transition Day.

Are parents allowed to walk their scholars to class on Transition Day?

Yes. Parents may walk their scholar(s) to class on Transition Day.

However, please note:

- Teachers will not be available for questions at this time.
 - A Back-to-School Night is scheduled for Monday, September 8th, where teachers will be available to share information and answer questions.

Is this day designed for conferences with teachers or time in the classroom with scholars?

No. Transition Day is designed to help scholars become familiar with their school building, routines, and/or the middle school experience.

Teachers will not be available for:

- Parent conferences
- Taking questions outside of class
- Extended conversations with families

After greeting your scholar and walking them to class, we kindly ask parents to exit the building so that the instructional day can begin smoothly.

Can parents walk their scholars to class on Tuesday, August 26th?

No. Parents will not be allowed to walk scholars to class after Transition Day. To ensure a safe and smooth start to the school year—and to prevent congestion—we encourage all families who are new to take advantage of Transition Day.

- On August 26th, front office staff and teachers will be available to guide and support scholars as they enter the building.
- Parents are encouraged to attend Back-to-School Night on September 8th to meet teachers, learn more about instructional programs, and tour the campus.
