Wearable face projector hoax?

<https://www.iflscience.com/technology/that-wearable-face-projector-hong-kong-protesters-are-suspectedly-using-is-not-real/>

“Even if people were to get hold of the device (which is very much not in commercial production), by the looks of it it would be pretty impractical for a protest, given that you're essentially having a projector shining into your eyeballs whilst you attempt to dodge projectiles. “

Its really just that fucking easy isn't it?
