

The Presidency of George Washington Study Guide

Be able to define:

Precedent	faction	debt	tariff	rebellion
Neutral	capitalism	democracy	negotiations	cabinet

Describe the precedents set by George Washington and their lasting impact. This means you should be able to explain:

- Creation of the National Bank
- Term Limits
- Creation of the Cabinet
- Creation of the Capitol
- Influence of factions & creation of political parties
- Proclamation of Neutrality
- The example set by the Whiskey Rebellion
- Interactions with Native American Tribes

How to Study?

- Practice on quizlet: Search "BisbeeHistory" the set is called "A New And Growing Nation"
- After school study sessions & during lunch - make an appointment

Jefferson's Presidency Study Guide

Be able to define this vocabulary:

Advantage, disadvantage, expedition, territory, port, precedent, Corps of Discovery, democratic

Be able to label on a map:

Rocky Mountains, Louisiana Purchase, Mississippi River, Missouri River, Columbia River, Pacific Ocean, Spanish Territory, Oregon Territory
--

Be able to...

- Explain how the US was able to buy Louisiana (who was involved, why was it possible, how much?)
- Explain why control over the Mississippi River and the port of New Orleans was so important
- List the missions of the Lewis and Clark Expedition and explain if they were achieved?

- Summarize who helped Lewis & Clark on their journey
- Describe the changes Jefferson made as president
- Connect Jefferson's political beliefs to his decisions while president