7-2 Local Government at Work Activities A. County Commissioners Budget Meeting Activity (Follow-Up Questions) 1. What were the difficulties your group experienced while trying to come to a consensus on balancing the budget and whether or not to increase taxes to meet the needs of your citizens? 2. During the discussion, did you start out advocating for the funding issues that reflected your personal interests? If so, did you continue to do this or did others convince you that their needs were as or more important? 3. Is it appropriate for real public officials to be influenced by personal experiences or needs when making decisions? Why or why not? 4. How might a commissioner decide what is best for the county as a whole (the "common good")? 5. How much of a role did the thoughts of winning reelection play in your decision to increase or not increase the property taxes of your constituents? 6. Would you want to be a county/city official who makes these kinds of decisions? Why or why not? Question for your county commissioner: Answer: _____ B. County Government Officials: Put the number slide next to the county official you believe is being described. a. Board of Commissioners: elected or appointed? b. County Manager: elected or appointed? _____ ___ c. Coroner ___ d. Register of Deeds e. Sheriff: elected or appointed? _____ f. Court clerk ___ g. District Attorney C. Answer questions looking at the Wilmington Progress Report from 2016-17 A. Wilmington at a glance: 1) What was our population in 2016? _____ 2) Where do we rank in terms of population size in NC? B. Your City At Work: This count helps our local government generate approximate revenue (in taxes). 1) What are the sources of revenue listed in this section? 2) And just what are our tax dollars are being spent on? List 3 specific expenditures listed in this section.

C. Local governments must address many issues when it comes to providing for the general welfare and common good of its citizens. Write one thing the city of Wilmington is doing or is making plans to help provide services for people in the following categories:

 Provide sufficient infrastructure (fundamental 	I facilities to be able to provide more/better services to citizens):
,

2) Protect the environment:

3) Prevent crime: _____

5) Increase the standard of living: 6) Help the Economy (Businesses and Tourism): D. Take a look at the NHC Zoning Maps and answer the questions below: A. (Existing Zoning Districts tab) What is zoning? B. (Future Land Use Map tab) Click on the following types of land uses on the map to answer the following questions: 1) If you were a contractor looking to buy up land to build houses in a neighborhood you would buy in		4) Provide adequate housing:
6) Help the Economy (Businesses and Tourism): D. Take a look at the NHC Zoning Maps and answer the questions below: A. (Existing Zoning Districts tab) What is zoning? B. (Future Land Use Map tab) Click on the following types of land uses on the map to answer the following questions: 1) If you were a contractor looking to buy up land to build houses in a neighborhood you would buy in areas. 2) If you worked for a steel company and you were looking for a location to build your next manufacturing plant you would be looking in areas. 3) If you were a strawberry farmer and looking to buy a home with large acreage you will look in areas. 4) If you were an investor looking into putting up an outdoor shopping mall w/ residences above the shops you would look in areas. 5) If you were looking to open up a club in a part of town that stays active into late night hours you would want to look in areas. 6) You work for the county board and you are thinking of expanding a land preserve for to protect a specific kind of specie of animal you would be looking into which type of area? E. Refer to the NC forms of aov't charts to answer questions about the following scenarios. Scenario A; You live in a town in which a charter sets up your gov't with a Mayor that can appoint department heads and veto ordinances. 3) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position? (b) Who makes the ordinances? City (made up of commissioners or aldermen) (c) How do city councilmen and women get their positions? d) What is the appointing (and makes ordinances)? (c) How do city councilmen and women get their positions? 5) What is the appointing (and makes ordinances)? (c) What form of local government is this scenario? 5) What jown of local government is this scenario? F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1) Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction' (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? 2) whore of the power? b) How is police chief chosen? sheriff? a. How
A. (Existing Zoning Districts tab) What is zoning? B. (Future Land Use Map tab) Click on the following types of land uses on the map to answer the following questions: 1) If you were a contractor looking to buy up land to build houses in a neighborhood you would buy in		6) Help the Economy (Businesses and Tourism):
B. (Future Land Use Map tab) Click on the following types of land uses on the map to answer the following questions: 1) If you were a contractor looking to buy up land to build houses in a neighborhood you would buy in areas. 2) If you worked for a steel company and you were looking for a location to build your next manufacturing plant you would be looking in areas. 3) If you were a strawberry farmer and looking to buy a home with large acreage you will look in areas. 4) If you were an investor looking into putting up an outdoor shopping mall w/ residences above the shops you would look in areas. 5) If you were looking to open up a club in a part of town that stays active into late night hours you would want to look in areas. 6) You work for the county board and you are thinking of expanding a land preserve for to protect a specific kind of specie of animal you would be looking into which type of area? E. Refer to the NC forms of aov't charts to answer questions about the following scenarios. Scenario A: You live in a town in which a charter sets up your gov't with a Mayor that can appoint department heads and veto ordinances. a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position? (made up of commissioners or aldermen) b) Who makes the ordinances? City (made up of commissioners or aldermen) c) How do city councilmen and women get their positions? d) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario B: You live in a city in which a charter sets up your gov't with an appointed official as an executive. a) Wha is the appointed official's title? b) Who does the appointing (and makes ordinances)? b) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario C: You live in a village in which a charter sets up your gov't with has a Mayor who simply presides over the local gov't. 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction' (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? 2	D. Take	e a look at the NHC Zoning Maps and answer the questions below:
1) If you were a contractor looking to buy up land to build houses in a neighborhood you would buy in	A. (Exi	sting Zoning Districts tab) What is zoning?
in areas. 2) If you worked for a steel company and you were looking for a location to build your next manufacturing plant you would be looking in areas. 3) If you were a strawberry farmer and looking to buy a home with large acreage you will look in areas. 4) If you were an investor looking into putting up an outdoor shopping mall w/ residences above the shops you would look in areas. 5) If you were looking to open up a club in a part of town that stays active into late night hours you would want to look in areas. 6) You work for the county board and you are thinking of expanding a land preserve for to protect a specific kind of specie of animal you would be looking into which type of area? E. Refer to the NC forms of gov't charts to answer questions about the following scenarios. Scenario A: You live in a town in which a charter sets up your gov't with a Mayor that can appoint department heads and veto ordinances. a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position? b) Who makes the ordinances? City (made up of commissioners or aldermen) c) How do city councilmen and women get their positions? d) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario B; You live in a city in which a charter sets up your gov't with an appointed official as an executive. a) What is the appointed official's title? b) Who does the appointed official's title? b) Who does the appointing (and makes ordinances)? c) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario C; You live in a village in which a charter sets up your gov't with has a Mayor who simply presides over the local gov't. a) What power do they have? c) What form of local government is this? F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the	B. (Fut	ture Land Use Map tab) Click on the following types of land uses on the map to answer the following questions:
2) If you worked for a steel company and you were looking for a location to build your next manufacturing plant you would be looking in	1)
3) If you were a strawberry farmer and looking to buy a home with large acreage you will look in	2)	If you worked for a steel company and you were looking for a location to build your next manufacturing plant you
4) If you were an investor looking into putting up an outdoor shopping mall w/ residences above the shops you would look in areas. 5) If you were looking to open up a club in a part of town that stays active into late night hours you would want to look in areas. 6) You work for the county board and you are thinking of expanding a land preserve for to protect a specific kind of specie of animal you would be looking into which type of area?	3)	If you were a strawberry farmer and looking to buy a home with large acreage you will look in
5) If you were looking to open up a club in a part of town that stays active into late night hours you would want to look in	4)	If you were an investor looking into putting up an outdoor shopping mall w/ residences above the shops you
E. Refer to the NC forms of gov't charts to answer questions about the following scenarios. Scenario A: You live in a town in which a charter sets up your gov't with a Mayor that can appoint department heads and veto ordinances. a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position? b) Who makes the ordinances? City	5)	If you were looking to open up a club in a part of town that stays active into late night hours you would want
Scenario A: You live in a town in which a charter sets up your gov't with a Mayor that can appoint department heads and veto ordinances. a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position?	6)
Scenario A: You live in a town in which a charter sets up your gov't with a Mayor that can appoint department heads and veto ordinances. a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position?	E. Refer	to the NC forms of gov't charts, to answer questions about the following scenarios.
and veto ordinances. a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position?	-	· · · · · ·
a) Is the mayor an elected or appointed position?
b) Who makes the ordinances? City	a) Is th	ne mayor an elected or appointed position?
c) How do city councilmen and women get their positions?	b) Wh	o makes the ordinances? City (made up of commissioners or aldermen)
d) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario B: You live in a city in which a charter sets up your gov't with an appointed official as an executive. a) What is the appointed official's title? b) Who does the appointing (and makes ordinances)? c) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario C: You live in a village in which a charter sets up your gov't with has a Mayor who simply presides over the local gov't. a) Who actually has most of the power? b) What power do they have? c) What form of local government is this? F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? b) How is police chief chosen? sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the	c) Hov	v do city councilmen and women get their positions?
a) What is the appointed official's title?
b) Who does the appointing (and makes ordinances)? c) What form of local government is this scenario? Scenario C: You live in a village in which a charter sets up your gov't with has a Mayor who simply presides over the local gov't. a) Who actually has most of the power? b) What power do they have? c) What form of local government is this? F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? b) How is police chief chosen? sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the Scenario C: You live in a village in which a charter sets up your gov't with has a Mayor who simply presides over the local gov't. a) Who actually has most of the power? b) What power do they have? c) What form of local government is this? F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? b) How is police chief chosen? sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the local gov't. a) Who actually has most of the power?
a) Who actually has most of the power?	Scena	rio C: You live in a village in which a charter sets up your gov't with has a Mayor who simply presides over the
b) What power do they have?
F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? b) How is police chief chosen? sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the b. What is the process of adding onto a municipality called?	a) Wh	o actually has most of the power?
F. Answer the following miscellaneous questions about local gov't: 1. Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) Sheriff? b) How is police chief chosen? sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the b. What is the process of adding onto a municipality called?	b) Wh	at power do they have?
 Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) 	c) Wha	at form of local government is this?
 Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws) 	F. Ansv	wer the following miscellaneous questions about local goy't:
sheriff? 2. municipal and annexation information a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the b. What is the process of adding onto a municipality called?		Police Chief v. Sheriff a) What is the police's jurisdiction? (geographical area of authority to enforce laws)
a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the b. What is the process of adding onto a municipality called?		sheriff?
 a. How can a municipal government become incorporated? from the b. What is the process of adding onto a municipality called? 	2.
c. In NC, how has the process changed in the last few years?
		c. In NC, how has the process changed in the last few years?