

RULES FOR FICTION REQUESTS & COMMISSIONS FROM MRRICKLES

1: Respect the writer, please. Rude, demanding, or entitled people will be turned away at the door.

2: See below for a list of acceptable smut topics I'm comfortable writing for, along with a small list of non-smut topics I won't ever be touching. Refusals will be made from there on a case by case basis. To work alongside this list, I am willing to do Bad End scenarios, provided it doesn't result in death, mutilation, or dismemberment. Additionally, these fics are limited to 1 chapter per request PER PERSON. You're better off not knowing why.

3: All characters written by me are 18 years old to avoid any moral grey area. Hands down, no questions asked. I will not budge.

4: All smut fics will be between humans or humanoid characters ONLY; any vaguely animal-like creatures requested will be made humanoid in appearance to avoid toeing the lines of the moral grey area.

5: I am willing and able to dip my toes into any other kinks that I haven't displayed in my works thus far, provided I'm given a general idea of what you're looking for. The ONLY exceptions I have are listed in Rule #2, and that list will be updated regularly based around what I find myself uncomfortable writing.

6: All requests made must follow a basic skeletal structure that will be made below to avoid wasting time; I appreciate speed and efficiency, so the fewer questions I have to ask to get the full picture, the better for us all.

7: Multi-chapter fics are restricted to a maximum of FOUR chapters per request per person. Depending on how many requests/commissions I have at any one time, longer fics make it necessary to break them down into smaller groups so I can get other people their works out also.

8: This IS, by and large, YOUR request; so long as it follows these rules and doesn't exceed or break them, you can conceivably add ANY little nuggets of information to it that you like, ranging from characters that join the fraccus to specific scenes you want to see, or, in the case of smut fiction, making it as wholesome or as hardcore as you like.

To clarify, Requests and Commissions work differently in my mind. Both can be made at any time. However, Requests are static, and will be given a number upon creation in order to let you know how far down the line I am from reaching it. Commissions, on the other hand, can jump to the front of the line and be handled with haste; the only caveat with this is that payment MUST be made within a maximum of 48 hours from completion of the commission.

In addition, I, MrRikkles, reserve the right to take a day or two off from writing in order to recharge myself; I am only human, and too long spent working on a single project will take it out of me. Therefore, if you don't see any postings by me within 24-48 hours, I've likely moved away from my system to entertain myself elsewhere.

Finally, the part you're most interested in, my quality guarantee. I always put more than my maximum amount of effort into everything I write to make sure that every requester/commissioner walks away with a result they can be happy about. Regardless of size and complexity, all fiction handled will be written up in a separate document on my computer, which you can request a copy of upon completion. Requests will be dealt with within one day to the best of my abilities, and in the case of multi-chapter stories, will be condensed into fewer if possible to maintain a steady stream of forward progression in the queue; if it takes me more than one, I will let you know ahead of schedule. Depending on the size and complexity Commissions, however, will be dealt with on an 8-hour time clock every single day until it's finished, starting at 1/2 PM my time and ending at either 9/10PM my time so I have time for myself after. All requests can be changed and altered in the time leading up to the very last day before it is put into work; if there is only one day left, however, no changes will be made, and the last successful edit you made will be treated as the final draft. Commissions MUST be set in stone and solidified when they are made, especially if payment can be made quickly for an express job, as I absolutely WILL NOT allow changes to a commission once it's made.

Commission prices are set by what the commissioner considers a worthy cost, but can NOT go under $10. In the case of longform, multi-chapter stories, I will have to set a maximum flat charge of $10 per chapter, and in this case, you can request as many chapters as you feel comfortable paying for.

Regardless of payment and size, all requests and commissions will be uploaded to my personal accounts on fanfiction.net and archiveofourown.org. They are under the same name, so you won't have to look far to find them. I also call out the requester/commissioner by username at the beginning of every work; if this doesn't sit well with you, you may request to be listed as an "anonymous requester/commissioner", and instead be notified when your work is finished.

MASSIVE DISCLAIMER!

I'm asking you for as much detail as possible because, when left to my own devices, I find I have a tendency to go off the rails and add things that may not align with your requested vision. So, if you want to see EXACTLY what you're wanting, give me the entire thing in as much detail as you possibly can; if you genuinely want me to be left to myself, then I will not be held responsible if the finished work no longer adheres to your request; after reading this disclaimer and making the choice, the consequences of not keeping me on a leash are entirely on YOU, and not on ME. You give me your vision, it's entirely on YOU to let me know what you wish to see. Otherwise... I take zero responsibility from the point of writing until the moment it's done.

Long story short: Fill out the skeleton with as much detail as you possibly can when sending in your request or commission; if you don't, I'm not responsible for what comes of it.
