

The Hill of Kvatch

Undid deletion of T_Bk_HillOfKvatchPC so it can go through the proper deprecation process. But removed its two TD-internal refs, one in the T_Cyr_Random_BookReport list and the one placed in the test cell.

Pocket Guide to the Empire

Changed one - to --, as is most common in vanilla books, and added a missing space to a second --.

The Port of Anvil

Incorporated the fixes pointed out by Denis above

Fixed a double space

"lin 3E 249"->"In 3E 249"

"the second most diverse city in the Imperial Province, second only to Cyrodiil City itself"->"the second most diverse city in the Imperial Province, only after Cyrodiil City itself" (to avoid repetition)

Privileges of the Dead

Changed all - to --, as is most common in vanilla books.

On Stirk

"It was only in the late decadent era that the Elven lords, mistrustful of their cousins in Alinor, Valenwood, and the Direnni lands founded the sea-fortresses"->"It was only in the late decadent era that the Elven lords -- mistrustful of their cousins in Alinor, Valenwood, and the Direnni lands -- founded the sea-fortresses" to divide up this long sentence more clearly.

"succesfull"->"successful"

"the Strident throne"->"the Strident Throne"

"construction of Duskwatch Keep, that Imperial order"->"construction of Duskwatch Keep, so that Imperial order"

Guide to Anvil

Incorporated the second fix pointed out by Denis ("renowned the world over" is the correct phrase)

"is doubtless the Garden Quarter."->"is doubtlessly the Garden Quarter."

"parallel to Strid"->"parallel to the Strid"

"take great care"->"take care" (not needed, and there's a great in the sentence right before)

Fixed resolution issue pointed out by trav and added Bazaar graphic (appended to the .esp, goes into Data Files\BookArt\pc)

Map of West Colovia

Fixed wrong text as pointed out by trav.
