

October 20, 2020 Meeting Held on Zoom

The group discussed/brainstormed topics for the remainder of the year. Mr. Avellino was very appreciative of the following attendees:

Krishna Baskota, Dawn Broderick, Tammy Ciotti, Kay Gallery, Bonnie Neubauer, Heather Quattrone, Joyce Rode, Naomi Trivison, Dana Vendetti, Krystal Ward, Aimy Wilson

Brainstorming included: Sources of information that parents may not be aware of. Visual Calendar Reminders color coded by grade level, access to a list of clubs and activities, Ted Talks for Course Offerings such as the assembly last February pre-Covid, other resources on the CHS Web site, what do I need to know as a 9th grade parent, 10th grade parent, etc. School messenger archive of CHS messages sent out, how to make our partnership better, social integration opportunities for our kids, when a student logs in to Google Meet can their picture show up if their camera is off instead of a name or letter? Pictures of staff on magnetic buttons for kids to see their faces behind the mask? Zoom lunch meets? Lunch time be groups of four (4) facing one another and still be socially distant and following protocols?

Mr. Avellino's topic he presented is: Know the Signs: Recognizing Mental Health Concerns in Kids and Teens. The blue part is an actual link to the presentation. Next Meeting is November 17, 2020 @ 6:30 pm. Please bring a friend or two. AN email reminder will go out the week prior. Thanks for attending! Please do not hesitate to reach out with additional suggestions or questions. Meeting ended at 7:20 pm.